

The Slicing Doesn't Matter—It's Still From Bologna

These three Italian beauties, in a festive mood at the annual fair in Bologna, pose with Italy's largest ham, which weighs 83 pounds and contains enough meat for 5,000 sandwiches—sliced a bit thin, of course. Bologna, in central Italy, on the plains of the Po valley, is the center of the country's pork-producing area.

Justice Makes Its Yearly Trip to River Thames

This most unusual scene is duplicated on the River Thames in Rochester, Eng., but once a year, when the mayor of one of the five so-called "Zinque cities" presides as admiral over the admiralty court. The court convenes once a year on a barge. All squabbles which have arisen during the past year among those who make their living on the river are brought up and ironed out. This year the mayor of Rochester presided, and is seen seated in the hold of the barge, surrounded by his aldermen. Waiting on the barge are the complainants and defendants who have waited one year for justice to be meted out.

Dress Your Chair and Davenport Alike

Now you can make your chair and davenport sets to match. And they're all in this simple crochet that works up so quickly. The davenport head rest is made of two chair backs joined with the border crocheted around the three sides. You'll be proud of these matched sets! Pattern 6391 contains directions for making the set; illustrations of it and of stitches; materials needed.

To obtain this pattern, send 15 cents in coins to The Sewing Circle, Household Arts Dept., 259 W. 14th St., New York.

Doomed Man Is Honored Guest at Own 'Wake'

Death was an invisible guest at a gay party given in honor of Claude Joseph Bradley, pictured at piano, in a Brooklyn, N. Y., club. The affair given by some 200 of "Brad's" friends was an ante-mortem wake for the guest of honor. Doomed by a serious illness, he has only a few weeks of life left, according to his doctors. Undaunted, he jests about his fate and proved his courage by being the "life of the party" at the "wake." The arrow in the upper right points to the honored guest.

Mother Wins.. He Travels Fastest.. $100,000 Smile

Four-year-old Susan, left, daughter of Songstress Marion Talley and Adolph G. Eckstrom, will remain in her mother's custody nine months of the year, and will spend three months of the year with her father, according to a New York judicial edict. Center: This lone traveler, Francis van Vedergraven, eight, completes the first leg of his California-to-Holland flight in Newark, N. J. In Holland he will visit his father. Right: Nancy C. Kennickell's happy smile won the heart of Mrs. Mary Adamson, wealthy Miami, Fla., widow, who adopted her so she could inherit legally a $100,000 estate. Nancy is 15 years old.

Tsk, Tsk! Such Is the Way of Progress

California beauty contestants are now judged on a scientific basis. The beauty queens here are being tested in the "Shadowgraph," a new device which gives their accurate measurements at a glance. The Shadowgraph was first used to select the winner of the Venice, Calif., Mardi Gras.

Chief of Legionnaires

History of the French Foreign Legion seems written in the features of bearded General Rollet, called the "Father of the Legion." The general, together with his legionnaires, visited Paris recently to march in the Bastille day parade, celebrating the 150th anniversary of the French revolution.

Charles Comiskey II, Heir to White Sox

Upon the shoulders of Charles Comiskey II may some day fall the responsibility of carrying on the name Comiskey, famous in baseball. The young man, now 13, shares equally with his two sisters in ownership of one-half of the Chicago White Sox, American League baseball club. His father, John Louis Comiskey, who died recently, left the entire holdings to his widow and three children, expressing in his will the desire that ownership in the club be kept in the Comiskey family at least until his youngest child attains the age of 35 years.

'Ours,' Sisters Shout

When officials of Rockville, Md., dedicated the city's new $77,000 post office they encountered difficulties. Mrs. Elizabeth Wimsatt of Washington, D. C., erected a warning sign, declaring that she and a sister were among eight heirs of the former owner of the site and had received nothing from the government. After much wrangling, the chief of police persuaded the adamant sisters to leave the property quietly.

'Welcome Home, Daddy,' Music to Jack

Rules No Help to Him

James R. Sadler, newly conscripted militiaman at Hounslow, Eng., barracks, faces quite a problem. Only four feet, six inches tall, Sadler found the rifle with fixed bayonet taller than himself. However, he'll soon become accustomed to it.

'Nudity Show' Brings Police by Carload

It all sounded pretty awful when Boston police were notified by an indignant woman that a "shocking" display of nudity was taking place at the Russell Dorr home. A careful of husky cops sped to the scene to protect the community's morals—and found 11-months-old Bruce Bugbee Dorr taking a sun bath in his "birthday" suit. The police hastily ruled that Master Bruce could play in the sun, without clothing, any time he pleases. Mrs. Dorr has her own ideas about neighbors who complain.

Cool Headed

Hot weather hint: This resident of Kent, England, attached the blades of an old electric fan to the lawn mower. By means of a few gear wheels the fan revolves, blowing a cooling breeze as soon as the machine is pushed along the grass.
