

Traffic Violators Fined In County Court

On a complaint signed by Patrolman Lawrence Russell on August 31st, Stanley E. Carlson, of Axtel, Nebraska, was before the County Judge charged with unlawfully operating a motor vehicle with dealer license plates thereon, which operation and movement of said vehicle was not in ordinary course of events or conduct of his business as a dealer in motor vehicles. He pled guilty to the charges, and was fined seven dollars and ordered to pay costs of action, which amounted to $3.10. On a complaint signed by Patrolman Harry J. Birt, on August 26th, Earl Coxhill, of Atkinson, was before the County Judge charged with unlawfully entering upon a state highway, where stop signs were erected without coming to a full stop, contrary to the form of statutes of the State of Nebraska in such cases. He pled guilty to the charge and was placed on probation for six months and ordered to pay the costs of the action.

Governor Cochran Plays Politics in Appointment

Roy L. Cochran has been elected governor of Nebraska for three consecutive times by Republican votes, for, without the assistance of Republicans he would have never been governor. A year ago the republicans elected the republican ticket in the state with handsome majorities, except governor and secretary of state. Among those elected was Dr. Bass, who was elected state treasurer. By their votes the electors of the state conclusively proved that they wanted a republican to handle the finances of the state, giving Dr. Bass several thousand majority.

Dr. Bass passed away last week and it was up to the governor to appoint his successor and it was presumed that the Governor would appoint a republican to fill the position, which he could do without question and make himself solid with the republicans who had been his supporters over the state. In Omaha alone the Governor received enough republican votes to insure his election, for without the great majority he received in Omaha he would have gone to defeat by several thousand.

The Governor, however, forgot his republican friends, when he came to appointing a state treasurer and he appointed a democrat to the position, John Havekost of Dodge County. Mr. Havekost is a fine man and will undoubtedly make a good treasurer, but the fact remains that the governor betrayed his republican friends who have been supporting him for several years and also betrayed the people of the state, who by their votes last fall decided that they wanted a republican to handle the state's finances.

Governor Cochran is now a candidate for the United States Senate, and, while we never thought he had a chance to win the election, his appointment, we believe, will mean his defeat by several thousand votes. Why was the appointment of a democrat made. Merely to give the governor more power. Since the first of the year the board, having control of much of the state's business, has been deadlocked, 2 and 2, with Governor Cochran and the democratic secretary of state on one side and Dr. Bass and Attorney Johnson on the other. Now with an additional democrat the governor will be in absolute control. But we think that time will show that he paid a high price for this honor.

TRIBUTE FROM A FRIEND

This community has been saddened by the illness and finally by the death of Mrs. Henry Murray. Cora is dead. Even now the sad news we heard August 27 seems strangely unreal, unbelievable to us. Though we knew for the last few weeks that she was ill, desperately ill, and though we followed the rise and fall of her condition in the reports from the hospital, we all felt sure that she would recover and be with us again, and in that last tragic moment when all hope seemed gone that it was not, could not, be true. Cora, as we all called her, had occupied too large a part in our lives to be so completely snatched from us, and when finally the terrible news struck home in all its stark reality there came into our hearts a numbness and a weight which even yet endures. This is but natural, death seems so unreal, so far away in the bright June time of our years. To realize that Cora is gone from our midst forever, to feel that we no longer shall be greeted with her ready smile or share in the honest mirth of the brightness of her laughter; to know that we have lost a fine neighbor, so true a friend, this is what chills the heart and dims our eyes in the first sudden shock of parting. Yes, she is gone and though we bend beneath this blow we bend submissively, accepting it in the true spirit of our Faith. There is the example which she leaves us, and it is this which now takes the burden from our sorrow, the grief from our hearts. xxx
