

Neutrality Looks Like a Ponderous Question

With congress knee-deep in discussion of America's neutrality course in the European war, the depth of the question is graphically illustrated by three congressmen listening to debate. Left to right: Rep. W. J. Ditter of Pennsylvania, Rep. F. B. Kieff of Wisconsin, and Rep. J. Rowland Kinzer, Pennsylvania.

New European Peace Threat Centers on Rumania

Fearing pressure from Germany, Russia and other neighbors, Rumania appointed anti-Nazi George Argesanu (right) as strong-arm premier following assassination of Premier Armand Calinescu by pro-German Iron Guards. Mass executions stopped a threatened overthrow of the government, but Rumania still fears her neighbors may try to regain territories she gained from them after the World war. International observers think these dangers might be minimized, however, should Russia continue her apparent policy of increasing sway over Baltic and Balkan nations, thus cutting off Germany's long feared drive to the east.

Sobriety and Fun Mingle at Legion Conclave

"Keep America out of the war" was the warning sounded by speakers at the American Legion's twenty-first convention in Chicago. Left: Retiring Commander Stephen Chadwick greets Henry Ford, auto magnate, who was among notables at the session. Right: The Legion had fun, too. Man Mountain Dean, former wrestler and a member of the Buford, Ga., post, had little success as sergeant-at-arms.

No Admittance! War Restrictions Hit Capital

Fearing recurrence of the World war bombing of the senate chamber, the capitol building was closed to Sunday visitors recently. At left, Sgt. V. O. Deus is turning away would-be visitors. Right: White House police follow secret service orders to close grounds of the executive mansion to all who have no official business.

Jumps 190-Foot Span; Hurt Later

It wasn't the 190-foot leap from San Francisco's Golden Gate bridge that hurt Charles Delps, St. Paul high diver. He injured his shin on a rock while swimming ashore. His wife, Lillian, scolds him at a San Francisco hospital.

Duke Steps Out

In full kit of an English major general, the once-exiled duke of Windsor leaves the London war office en route to the French battle front. Observers noticed the duke preserved his distinctive dress even in wartime, wearing non-regulation shoes.

Soviet, Germany Split Polish Loot

Map shows the latest partition of Poland, with areas going to both Germany and Russia. The Reich got the smaller and richer part but Russia got more land to provide a 50-50 break. Observers also noticed that industrialized Germany got more industrial property, which she does not need, and that Russia received agricultural land of which she already has too much. The San and Vistula rivers form a major portion of the all "water" boundary, which cuts through the suburbs of Warsaw, ancient Polish capital, and gives Russia such important cities as Lwow, Brest-Litovsk and Wilno, historic Lithuanian city which Poland captured shortly after the World war.

Comely 'Refugee'

Wilma Birth of Chicago was among the prettiest American refugees arriving from war-torn Europe aboard the S. S. Volendam, a Dutch vessel.

Women in the War

Woman's place is no longer in the home, say these English lassies. Top: Miss Elspeth Ironside (right), daughter of Gen. Edmund Ironside, chief of the imperial general staff, drives her father's official car. Below: Actress Elizabeth Allen serves tea at a canteen "somewhere in England."

Out of Jail at Last—and So to College

Joan, daughter of Sing Sing Warden Lewis E. Lawes, and the only person ever born within Sing Sing's grim walls, enters Pembroke college at Providence, R. I. Daddy went along to help fix up her room the day Joan started school.

Double Trouble—

Jack Young, Chicago private investigator, sued a national magazine for $250,000, saying the publication called him a "cuckoo" because he allegedly made capital of his resemblance to President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Parents Charged With Whipping Child

Mr. and Mrs. Mariano Fanelli of Camden, N. J., had to be guarded against mob violence when arraigned in police court on charges of beating their three-year-old daughter, Madeline. Recovering at a hospital from multiple cuts and bruises, the child showed the effects of a terrible thrashing.

Constipation Relief That Also Pepsin-izes Stomach

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste, and bad breath, your stomach is probably loaded up with certain undigested food and your bowels don't move. So you need both Pepsin to help break up fast that rich undigested food in your stomach, and Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels. So be sure your laxative also contains Pepsin. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative, because its Syrup Pepsin helps you gain that wonderful stomach-relief, while the Laxative Senna moves your bowels. Tests prove the power of Pepsin to dissolve those lumps of undigested protein food which may linger in your stomach, to cause belching, gastric acidity and nausea. This is how pepsinizing your stomach helps relieve it of such distress. At the same time this medicine wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your bowels to relieve your constipation. So see how much better you feel by taking the laxative that also puts Pepsin to work on that stomach discomfort, too. Even finicky children love to taste this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative—Senna with Syrup Pepsin at your druggist today!
