

Mother Takes Witness Stand Before Dies Committee

A boast that Communists would take over the government and armed forces of the United States was told to Martin Dies, right, of Texas, chairman of the Dies committee investigating un-American activities, by Mrs. Dollie Crawford, left, of Frederick, Md. Mrs. Crawford's son, William McCuiston, was arrested recently in connection with a New Orleans murder, and the man who "tipped off" the police that her son could be apprehended made the boast to her, according to Mrs. Crawford.

Germany's Guns Face West Towards 'No Man's Land'

Camouflaged with clumps of grass and branches of trees, this mighty piece of German artillery faces west as a gun crew watches activity on the other side of "no man's land," somewhere in Germany. This picture is one of the first made on the Nazi side of the western front.

As British Merchant Ships Swarm the Seven Seas

Swarming over the seven seas on any given day are 1,545 British merchant ships, easy prey for Nazi submarines. Another 705 British merchantmen are in foreign ports on the same day. As vital to British life-lines as her navy, the cargo-carrying vessels cruise over 30,000 miles of ocean and sea lanes. To peace-time England the merchant fleet carries almost 48 per cent of all her food. Today it must bring the same food, plus steel, oil, guns, planes and war essentials. It's a huge job for England to convey those 1,545 ships daily. Key to the numbers on the map shown in inset.

Pensioners Defeated on 'Ham and,' '50 at 60'

Still smiling are the Allen brothers, Willis (left) and Lawrence (center), promoters of the "ham and eggs" pension plan which proved to be an unpalatable dish for California voters, who emphatically rejected the scheme in a special election. The plan called for the payment of $30 in warrants every Thursday to each unemployed Californian over 50. Right: Rev. Herbert Bigelow, proponent of Ohio's pension plan, which, like California's, was flatly rejected by voters. Bigelow's plan called for an income of $50 per month to Ohioans past 60.

'Now, Here's the Way It Appears to Me'

It must have been a matter of grave consequence judging from the facial expression of Rep. Luther A. Johnson of Texas, right, who whispers into the ear of Rep. James A. Shanley of Connecticut. Johnson probably wears a happier look now, for the arms embargo repeal, which he backed, was adopted. Shanley advocated retention of existing embargo legislation.

Soldier's Return

Eager to help England win the war was Charles Conner, 14, of Chicago. He stowed away on board a transatlantic liner, then jumped the ship when it reached a British contraband inspection point. Authorities restrained him from joining the army and sent him home.

'Somebody Please Throw That Man Out'

When the cameraman surprised Countess Barbara Hutton Haugwitz-Reventlow, left, and Bob Sweeney, her new heart interest, while dining in a New York hotel, their companion, Countess Dorothy DiFrasso, jumped to the rescue and threw her fur piece over "Bab's" face, requesting that the cameraman be thrown out. Sweeney was too busy ducking.

Red Cross Worker

Helen Keller, famous blind scholar and lecturer, has her new Red Cross bonnet adjusted by nine-year-old Betty Lou Morris. Miss Keller added to her other activities by joining the organization at the roll call workers' rally held in Philadelphia.

In Other Words—'Don't Disturb the Pilot'

This poster, distributed in Italy, shows Premier Mussolini at the controls of his bombing plane which bears the inscription: "The Italian people know that they must not disturb the pilot, especially when he is engaged in tempestuous navigation; nor ask notice of the route at every turn." The inscription, of course, applies to Italy's stand on the international situation. Italy's diplomatic course is not to be questioned by its people.

End of Tiger Grid Star's Playing Career

Don Herring, inset, 21-year-old football and track star at Princeton university, is carried off the field after receiving an injury that resulted in the loss of his left leg. The youth, who aided in a 26 to 12 victory over Brown, was injured in the first quarter of the game. Examination revealed that ligaments below the knee were torn and three main arteries had been severed. The amputation was made necessary because of the danger of gangrene becoming acute.

Help From the Sky

A "suicide squad" of women parachute jumpers to offer first aid to wounded soldiers behind front lines is advocated by Marie McMillan, New York, holder of the world's parachute jumping record for women. The services of the "battalion of mercy" will be offered to France, said Miss McMillan.

Deadeye Gomez

Home in New York from a hunting trip to the New Brunswick woods, Vernon "Lefty" Gomez, pitching ace for the Yankees, holds the 60-pound bear cub he dropped with one shot. It should make a beautiful rug.
