THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, January 29, 1885

Will this cold weather never let up?

The school board has decided to grade the school and Prof. Bland is now at work preparing a course of study. With a graded school, with competent instructors and a new school house O'Neill will take the lead in educational matters.

Dr. W. D. Mathews, Hon. M. P. Kinkaid and Patrick Fahy returned from a three weeks trip to Washington, D. C. They were delegates sent from this city to convince the "powers that be" that the U. S. Land Office should be moved from Niobrara to O'Neill. They returned full of hope for the transfer and their faith in the enterprise was vindicated a few months later when the office was moved here.

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, January 30, 1890

In the spring the lumber yard of the Galena Lumber Company will be moved down near the Potter House, where they have recently purchased five lots.

Sheridan township was created, being cut off from the south part of Atkinson township. The division placed Mr. Tobias the supervisor for Atkinson township, in the new township and shortly after the division was made a petition, signed by fifty-eight voters came into the clerk's office asking for the appointment of William Hayes as supervisor from the new township of Sheridan. Mr. Hayes was appointed to the position. Joseph Sturdevant was also appointed as supervisor from Atkinson township.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, February 1, 1900

District Court commences next Monday. There are 591 civil cases and four criminal cases on the docket.

D. H. Cronin, editor of the Frontier, was elected president of the Nebraska Press Association at their meeting in Lincoln last week.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, January 27, 1910

M. H. Horiskey is taking a month's layoff from his duties as mail clerk on the Burlington and is away on a trip to Kansas City and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Golden, long residents of this city left Saturday morning for their future home at Creston, Iowa.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, January 29, 1920

Philip Morrison, a resident of the county for thirty-five years, died Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Michaley, north of this city at the age of 96 years.

Married at St. Patrick's church Jackson, Nebraska, last Monday morning at 8:30, William J. Biglin of O'Neill, to Miss Mary Waters of Jackson, Rev. Father McCarthy officiating.

Floyd R. Johnson and Miss Clementine Bernier, both of Ray, were united in marriage by Rev. O. E. Richardson in Atkinson last Monday. They are both members of pioneer families of that section of the county.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, January 30, 1930

The ghost lights north of town were creating a lot of interest here as well as over the state. Several of town and a meeting is called for next week to discuss the matter.

The funeral of Jasper H. Ritts, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. F. Herring at Eugene, Oregon, on January 19, 1930, was held from the Methodist church Saturday afternoon, burial in Prospect Hill cemetery.

William Messner, one of the pioneers of the county, passed away on January 17. Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church on January 20.

O'Neill Man Commands U. S. Ice Breaker

In the Comanche log for Jan. 5 we read how she stood out from Poughkeepsie at 6:05 A. M., after a night's layover, breaking ship channel ice, northward. The log said:

"6:15—Breaking through rather heavy ice.

"7:15—Esopus Meadows Light abeam to port performed morning routine.

"9 A. M.—Maneuvering to free M. S. (Motor Ship) Point Breeze stuck in heavy ice off Saugerties.

"10:47—Took tow line from M. S. Point Breeze. Manuevered to turn her. Dropped tow. Standing down river assisting M. S. Point Breeze as far as Kingston. (Broke lane through ice for her.)

"3:45 P. M.—Overhauled Tankers Boston Socony, Poughkeepsie Socony, Burlington Socony and Tugs Socony 1 and Socony 9. Preceded them up river, breaking channel. Saw vessels safely to moorage."

The weather record in the log was marked "OSZ"—overcast, snowing, hard weather.

This log represents a more or less typical day.

Men's cries came through the cabin windows. Feet pounded down the deck. A seaman stood in the doorway; saluted. "Man overside, sir," he said. The skipper went to the rail and saw a dock worker hauled from the ice-filled water with one of the Comanche's life rings. The dock worker was hurried down the pier, all adrip.

At the gangplank Skipper Meals saw us off. He talked of the man overboard.

"A sailor sir," he said, "is always close to the hands of God."
