

'Glass Boot' Used to Save Student's Frozen Toes

Webster Jones, Harvard sophomore who recently escaped death on the icy slopes of Mount Washington, New Hampshire, when he became lost, is shown in the Littleton, N. H., hospital, his right foot encased in a "glass boot." The boot enabled physicians to increase and decrease air pressure on four badly frozen toes. Nurse Dorothy S. Colby, Dr. Webster N. Jones of Pittsburgh, Pa., the youth's father, and Dr. C. W. Copenhaver, left to right, pictured at the bedside.

500-Mile Mine Belt Protects Great Britain's Coast

As protection against any possible invasion, Great Britain is laying a belt of mines 30 miles wide and 500 miles long off the British east coast. Left: Row after row of death-dealing mines carried in the hold of a mine-laying vessel which is carrying its cargo to the mine belt. Right: Rolling off its miniature railway track on a mine-laying vessel, a mine goes to join the thousands upon thousands in the long belt.

Dead Men, Silent Guns Tell Mute Story of Warfare

With gunners lying dead and frozen under their barrels, these Russian guns are shown on a road of Suomussalmi as they fell into the hands of the Finns, who mopped up the ragged remnants of the Red army's forty-fourth division. This is only a small fraction of the total equipment which was captured by the Finnish army, and which is now being used against its former owners.

Colonists Off to Seek Utopia in Caribbean Sea

En route to East Caicos, a 125,000-acre island at the southeastern end of the Bahamas, this small group recently arrived in Cutler, Fla., from Pasadena, Calif. They hope to establish a perfect community on the uninhabited isle, which is a 700-mile voyage from Miami. Standing, left to right: Dawn Irvine, Mrs. A. E. Lawrence and Jane Irvine. Seated, left to right: Helene Irvine, Mrs. Richard C. Irvine, Mrs. A. L. Lornsten and Mrs. James Lake. Mrs. Lake owns the island where the colonists will attempt building their Utopia.

Taft Meets Piscatorial Requirements

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, invades the "solid south" while on vacation. Captain Ray Savary, commander of the fishing boat, is talking to the senator after they enjoyed a day's sport off Miami Beach, Fla. The Taft party came home with a 10-pound grouper and a 40-pound sailfish.

'Strangler' Reformed

Ed ("Strangler") Lewis, former wrestling champion, has voiced a definite farewell to arms, and is now running a restaurant in Glendale, Calif. The former grunt and groin specialist is pictured with a stranglehold on a succulent "home-cooked" joint.

Motor Magnates Greet Mickey Rooney

Mickey Rooney, young movie star, in a friendly pose with motor car magnates Edsel (left) and Henry Ford. Mickey was a guest of the Fords while in Detroit, Mich., for a movie premiere. The new film, shown for the first time in the motor city, was the life story of Thomas Edison. Henry Ford's enthusiasm perhaps is the result of his life-long admiration for the inventive genius of Edison.

Building the Lily

From tiny bulb to flowering plant within 30 days is the record of this amaryllis, grown in a display room in the Merchandise Mart, Chicago. The lily, measured by Julia McCarthy, grew without soil or sunshine, its roots immersed in a solution of plant growing chemicals.

Norwegian Skiers Fight for Finland

Three famed Norwegian skiers, Leif Haug, Kjell Holst and Birger Tidemand, left to right, as they joined the Swedish free corps forces in Finland. Their knowledge of skiing will enable them to follow out the Finnish tactics of lightning rear guard actions against Red invaders.

What, No Bridge?

Diana Joy Visser of Los Angeles, Calif., 10 weeks old, yawns as her mother displays a tiny tooth which was growing crooked in the baby's mouth and was extracted.

Polish National Council Meets in Paris

Ignace Jan Paderewski, world-famous pianist who has re-entered political life as president of the Polish national council, chats with Wladyslaw Raczewicz, left, president of the Polish republic, and General Sikorski, right, prime and war minister, at the first meeting of the Polish national council in France since the war began. The government in France was established after Germany's invasion of Poland.

Lone Sentinel

Lonesomest job on the western front is that of this royal artillery telephonist who sits alone with his instrument and advises the British battery on its target accuracy, giving it the correct range.
