BRIEFLY STATED

Farmers who have been town the past ten days all have a big smile as well as the business men of this city. It begins to look now as if we are going to have a good year in Holt county and Nebraska, judging from the amount of moisture received so far this year. We are all hoping that the precipitation will continue for the balance of the year.

A. Sutton, one of the pioneer settlers of the Amelia section of the county, was a pleasant caller at this office on Tuesday afternoon extending his subscription to the Frontier. Mr. Sutton was on his way home from Wahoo, Nebr., where he had spent the past winter with relatives. Now that spring has arrived he was anxious to get back to the ranch.

This office received a letter the first of the week from Mrs. H. H. Mitchell, of Jeffries, Montana, enclosing a remittance for her favorite Holt county paper. She says they enjoy the paper very much and could not get along without it. She says that her aunt, Nora Sullivan, for many years a resident of this city and county and who is now in her nineties, was getting along fine and was always glad to hear about the people from the "old home town". Mrs. Mitchell was formerly Kate (Flur) Sullivan and was raised in the Michigan settlement northeast of this city.
