

Norway's Armed Forces Draw Up in Battle Array

Typical of Norse fighting men who are resisting the Nazi invasion are these soldiers—part of a small but well-trained and well-equipped army. Top left: An artillery detachment on the move, ready to go into action against the Nazi war machine. Bottom left: A battery of Norwegian howitzers being wheeled into position on Norway's west coast. Right: These smiling soldiers, on duty at the fallen port of Narvik, pictured before that city was seized by Germany.

Where Germany Advanced 'Protectorate' Demands

Pictured above is Oslo, capital city of Norway. It was here that German troops landed in one of the first steps of the invasion, and where the German minister in Oslo presented the Norwegian foreign secretary with the ultimatum that Norway be handed over to Germany with no resistance. Following the seizure of Oslo by Nazi forces, the Norwegian army began action to recapture the city, clinging to positions along Oslo fjord and cutting off possible German approaches to Oslo by barricading strategic highways.

European War Crisis Causes Stir in Nation's Capital

Reported disturbed by the rapid spreading of Europe's war, President Roosevelt cut short his rest at Hyde Park and returned to Washington to meet with government officials. Proudly displaying a new cane, which he jokingly referred to as "the big stick," the President was greeted by (left to right) Secretary of State Cordell Hull, Assistant Secretary of War Louis Johnson and Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles.

Parachute School Holds Graduation Exercises

At the parachute school of the Lakehurst, N. J., naval air station, "graduation" exercises take a very practical turn. Before students are awarded a diploma they must make a mass parachute jump with a chute packed by themselves. Left: Members of a class boarding a plane ready to take their last lesson. Right: With breath-taking speed the ground comes up to meet the student jumper. He has finished the regulation training period. The jump is his final lesson—and he knows that he has packed his parachute correctly.

Economic Prize in Second World War?

Map shows Scandinavian countries' natural resources. Control of Norway, Sweden and Denmark by Germany would mean access to their vast stores of foodstuffs, copper, iron, lead, zinc, timber and agricultural products.

Nazi Invasion Endangers Three Crowns

Germany's lightning invasion of Denmark and Norway struck deep at the traditional autonomy of the Scandinavian countries and periled the crowns of three monarchs. Pictured here are (left) King Haakon of Norway, (center) King Gustav of Sweden and King Christian of Denmark. Hitler's action came as a bombshell to the nations.

End of Worries
Phyllis—Were you nervous when George proposed?
Mabel—No, dear. That's when I stopped being nervous.

It Came to Him
"Johnny, name the two types of sugar that I mentioned in the previous lesson," said the teacher.
"I-I've forgotten," stammered Johnny.
"Then I think you had better bend over that chair," grimly said the teacher.
"Oh, I remember now—cane and beat!"

Quite Audible
He had answered an advertisement offering a second-hand car, and was being given a trial run.
"It's sound in every part," commented the would-be seller.
"So I hear," was the reply.

A disused quarry is now a bunker on a golf course. Blasting still goes on!

Real Difficulty
Doctor—Have you ever had trouble with dyspepsia?
Patient—Only once.
"And when was that?"
"When I tried to spell it."

Otherwise Engaged
The perky traveler entered the office without ceremony. Said the big business man: "It is the invariable custom of this office to make an appointment with my secretary before seeing me, and I—"
"Oh, that's all right. I've tried to but she's all booked up."

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

The Carriage Waits Without

And that means without wheels, horses or the magnificent appointments it once possessed. The relic of other—and more peaceful—days makes a roosting place for a French poule, whose post is nearby. One of the legends inscribed on the former vehicle warns that "it is forbidden to touch."

Self-Service

"Jock," unlike most cats, prefers water to milk—and likes to draw his own. His owner, Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin of Bound Brook, N. J., loosened the faucet so "Jock" could work it with his paws.

Puppet Premier

Head of the newly formed puppet group in Norway is Major Vidkun Quisling, Fascist leader, who announced a new government to replace that of Premier Johann Nygaardvold.

It's Pay-Off Time for Jimmy Demaret

Jimmy Demaret, left, of Houston, Texas, receives a $1,150 check for first prize money from Bobby Jones, right, after Demaret won the seventh annual Masters' golf tourney at Augusta, Ga. In center is Lloyd Mangrum, who was second. Demaret shot a 280, Mangrum a 284. The victory made Demaret leading money winner of the winter circuit.

Music Box

Miss Evelyn Birrell of Washington, D. C., with a model of the first hand-driven victrola, vintage of 1898. The victrola was displayed in an exhibition marking the 150th anniversary of the first patent legislation. By way of contrast, Miss Birrell is seated on the latest model radio-victrola combination.

No Clothes Horse

No longer is clowning confined to red-nosed human performers. Decked out in a two-pants suit, this member of a circus troupe entertained a New York audience. The donkey performer was a success.
