

Mass Training of Pilots at 'West Point of Air'

High over Uncle Sam's "West Point of Air" at Randolph field, Texas, soars a training plane manned by a flying cadet and his instructor. Seven thousand pilots will be trained annually in the recently inaugurated air corps' expansion program. Within 36 weeks from the time a flying cadet starts his flight training, he will be graduated as a full-fledged military pilot and second lieutenant in the air corps reserve.

British Anti-Aircraft Guns Alert for Nazis

English anti-aircraft gunners snap into position at their post somewhere along the coast on the alert for surprise attacks by hordes of Hitler's planes. Elsewhere throughout the United Kingdom similar defenses were ready. Defense of the homeland against Nazi onslaughts by air, sea and parachute troops became a problem vital to the continued existence of the British empire after the complete defeat of France.

Nazis' Paris Parade Recalls Days of 1871

A field artillery regiment of the conquering Nazi army parades through Paris following the capitulation of the French forces. In the background is seen the famous Arc de Triomphe, landmark of the captured city on which are inscribed the military triumphs of the French armies under the Emperor Napoleon. Once before—in 1871—a conquering German army occupied Paris, following the Franco-Prussian war.

Gems of Thought

WE OUGHT not to look back unless it is to derive useful lessons from past errors, and for the purpose of profiting by dear bought experience.—Washington.

A man's life must be nailed to a cross either of Thought or Action. Without work there is no play.—Winston Churchill.

Never say you know a man all you have divided an inheritance with him.—Lavater.

Against diseases the strongest fence is the defensive virtue, abstinence.—Herrick.

Ever with the best desert goes diffidence.—Browning.
