THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, July 30, 1885
The foundation for the mill is finished.

We are sorry to be obliged to state that the census of the county is less than at first announced. Mr. Kinkaid received a letter last week from Mr. Lane stating that his clerk had made an error in computing Holt County's census. The corrected returns give us a population of 16,065, an increase over last year of about 45 per cent, an excellent showing after all.

The Frontier, August 6, 1885
The race track is being prepared for the coming fair.

This section of the county has been blessed with refreshing rains the past week, for which the people feel very thankful.

W inadvertently omitted mentioning the new paper at Star last week. The first issue appeared July 27. It is a five column quarto. Success to you, Bro. Baluss.

The wife of Patrick McGuire, living south of O'Neill, died last Wednesday afternoon and was buried in the Catholic cemetery here last Friday. She leaves four children and a husband to mourn her passing.

Treasurer Darr and Commissioner West arrived home from Lincoln last Thursday evening. They sold the Center precinct bonds to the First National Bank of Omaha, getting par for them.

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, July 31, 1890
Born, to Elmer Merriman and wife last Friday, a boy. The Frontier congratulates.

Little Johnny O'Donnell was seriously injured this morning. While riding a horse, he rode under a clothes line and was thrown violently to the ground.

W. J. Canton left O'Neill Sunday for Washington, where he expects to locate permanently.

August 16, 1890, has been fixed as the day upon which the biggest celebration ever held in O'Neill will take place. A grand Barbecue and free dinner is being talked of, and as soon as necessary arrangements can be made they will be made public. Mr. McLean, who was here this week, said they would bring several thousand people from Sioux City and with the crowds that will come in from the surrounding country, will no doubt make the biggest crowd ever gathered in Nebraska.

James Killoran, late editor of The Tribune, died in Omaha last Thursday night. He was asphyxiated by illuminating gas at the Hotel Casey. The body was brought here Saturday evening and the funeral was held from the Catholic church at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. He was 26 years of age at the time of his death.

The Frontier, August 7, 1890
The first regular passenger train on the Pacific Short Line arrived in O'Neill at 9 o'clock on August 1. Several hundred O'Neill people accompanied by the band, were on the platform to greet the train and its passengers.

The first kiln of brick has been burned by the O'Neill Brick and Tile Co., the work being finished Monday. There were 174,000 brick in the kiln. J. D. Jefferson, the foreman and brick maker informs us that they are very good brick and will stand the test.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, August 2, 1900
The Frontier learns that Wm.

Nollkamper has torn down his flour mill and is now excavating ground preparatory to the erection of a new mill, which will be much larger than the old one.

The republican county convention was held in the court house last Monday. Thomas Simonson, of Shields, and E. S. Gilmour, of Ewing, were nominated for state representatives. L. C. Chapman, of Atkinson, was nominated for county attorney; R. R. Dickson being elected chairman of the County Central Committee.

The Frontier, August 9, 1900
Water standing in pools for several days after, is evidence that the rains of Sunday and Monday nights were "soakers."

Pat McManus is getting his upstairs room in shape. A partition has been torn out making one room of two and papering and cleaning it makes a nice room with stairs leading up from below.

The convent looms up on the hill like the castle of a knight in the Monagh Leas. The third floor has been reached and the building is squaring out to completeness rapidly.

At a republican convention held last Friday, R. J. Marsh was unanimously selected as the candidate for supervisor from this district.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, August 4, 1910
North and northeast of this city last Tuesday night, they had one of the heaviest rains that has visited the county for several years. In the Mineola section they have received over six inches of rain since July 4.

The Frontier, August 11, 1910
Miss Constance Adams arrived from Hastings last Thursday night and will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends here.

A good sized delegation of O'Neill people went down to Norfolk last Friday and witnessed Dave Stannard's pacer, Speed On, driven by Hugh McKenna, clean up the field and win first money in the 2:14 pace.

Those who attended the race meet Wednesday were treated to some of the best racing seen in this part of the state for years. In the 2:14 pace Speed On, Dave Stannard's speedy little pacer had it upon the rest of the string and won in straight heats.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, July 29, 1920
The Misses Irene O'Donnell and Marjorie Dickson left Wednesday for Council Bluffs, where they will spend a couple of weeks visiting friends.

James Davis, James Davidson, Tom Enright, Hugh Coyne, John D. Kelly and Ed Burge comprised a fishing party that went over to Lake Andes Friday, returning Monday evening.

Farm lands in Holt county reached a value of $250 an acre last week when 60 acres near Atkinson was sold by Mrs. Dell Aiken for $15,000.00.

The Frontier, August 5, 1920
Voters of the city declared emphatically for improvement of the city water system at the special election Monday, by voting the proposed bond issue of $31,000.00 by a vote of 139 for and 19 against.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, July 31, 1930
The peak of the hot weather was reached last Sunday when the Mercury rose to 110 degrees. It was 108 on Saturday, but cooled off considerably Monday.

D. A. Doyle passed away at Grand Rapids, Mich., Wednesday night of last week. He was about 74 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Moss and daughters, and Miss Mae Hammond and Mary Fitzsimons Masie, of Omaha, left on Sunday for a vacation trip through Yellowstone Park. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Dr. Frank Gallagher, of La-Crosse, Wis., arrived in O'Neill Sunday evening to visit his mother, Mrs. J. P. Gallagher and his sisters, Misses Hilda and Helen Gallagher, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. T. A. Quilty, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell, Hugh O'Donnell, R. E. Gallagher, James Marron, Art Spittler and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Coyne dove to Bonesteel, S. D., Wednesday where they attended the funeral of P. J. Donohoe.

Fred Spires, who some years ago, lived in O'Neill, where he was a salesman for the Armour Company, died very suddenly at his home at Fullerton, Nebraska, on Sunday, July 28th, where he has lived for the past several years and where he operated a restaurant.

Mrs. Henry Inne and sons, of Peatonia, Illinois, visited here Wednesday at the home of Miss Mary Horiskey. Mrs. Inne was a former resident of O'Neill, leaving here thirty-two years ago, and this was her first visit here since that time.

Mrs. W. H. Harty and daughter, Helen, returned on Sunday from the west coast, where they have been visiting Mrs. Harty's mother, Mrs. M. Mullen and other relatives for the past month. Miss Mary Harty and Jack and Mike Harty drove to Grand Island on Sunday to meet them.

Valley Trudell, of Santee, was before County Judge Reimer on Thursday morning on a complaint signed by Patrolman Lawrence Russell, charging him with driving without a drivers license and with operating a motor vehicle without proper license plates. He pled guilty to the charge and was fined $5.00 and costs, amounting to $3.10.

Miss Grace Connelly and Barney Walsh returned on Thursday evening from their vacation, during which they drove through Yellowstone Park, and then visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Tour and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cronin at Grand Island, Nebraska. Mr. Walsh left on Saturday morning for his home at West Union, Iowa.

Mrs. Lawrence Russell and sons returned on Monday from North Bend, where she has been visiting her parents for the past month. Miss Lillian Button, Mrs. Russell's sister drove them here from North Bend and visited until Wednesday when she returned to North Platte where she will visit before returning to her home in New York City.

George L. Butler, one of the pioneer residents of Ewing, died at his home in that city Monday morning, at the age of 85 years. He had been a resident of the county for about sixty years and for many years was one of the most prominent citizens of the eastern part of the county and was well known in this city and vicinity.

Many deaths have occurred in this town from the terrific heat, also; many prostrations. Thousands of people sleep in the parks. Believe it or not, 114 degree temperature in Nebraska is not as hot as 95 in Washington. It's a different kind of heat. Even people from the Philippine Islands say that it is hotter in Washington than in the Islands.

Hot winds and corn damage in Nebraska bring great sadness to the Nebraska delegation in Washington. These Nebraska representatives gather around the weather map in the House lobby and cuss and discuss the weather.

Thousands of government employees are excused afternoons weather man takes the afternoon off. Offices are so hot as to be beyond human endurance.

Congressman Carl Curtis of Nebraska is one of a special Congressional committee selected to investigate the interstate migration of destitute citizens. The committee is now studying migrants in New York and New Jersey. Ahead of this committee is a scouting force of forty investigators, many of them borrowed from Federal agencies concerned with the migratory worker problem.

Every day, new faces from foreign lands appear in the diplomatic sections of Washington. People with all kinds of titles are making the front pages of Washington newspapers where they tell stories during the heat here. Even the of why they were forced to leave the old country and how happy they are that they were allowed to come to the United States, where they feel they will be safe from persecution. Many of these people with titles are being taken in by some of the rich families in the East. Some of them are looking for jobs.

Because of activities of Uncle Sam in Central and South America, thousands of young men and young women here are learning to speak Spanish. The tip to the young people at home who may be interested in South America is to brush up on their Spanish, as it may come in mighty handy to some of them, should they be lucky enough to secure jobs in these countries. Believe it or not, the language teachers in this town are urging their students to also learn German along with Spanish.

Rear Admiral Ross T. McIntire, the President's physician, has officially announced that the President is in as good condition as any man of 58 years of age could possibly expect to be. Along with his weekly yachting cruises and a trip to Hyde Park, the President never misses his exercises. Three times a week he swims in the White House swimming pool and each day he gets a massage and some other exercises to keep his nerve and muscular systems in good shape. He tries to keep his weight between 184 and 188. He is said to weigh about 187 pounds now.

Railroad workers will be interested to know that Congressman Robert Cresser of Ohio, who was injured in an auto accident in Maryland the other night is improved and is not suffering as a result of that accident. Mr. Cresser is the author of a large amount of legislation favored by railroad employees.
