The four Australian queens of the air are expected to bring shivers of apprehension, as well as thrills to the show-going public at the C. F. Zeiger United Railroad Shows, Inc., which will pitch their big tents here Tuesday, August 19, for 6 big days. These daring trapeze artists will perform daring stunts 124 feet high on lofty poles without use of any nets or safety devices.

These girl actors will erect their own rigging on the opening day free to the public since they take no chances with others putting it up. Many new features will be seen on the shows midway this season. Rosemary Loomis, wild animal trainer and Western movie star. Riding devices for young and old. Fun for all show grounds located on 2nd Street at Hynes comes highly recommended.
