HERE AND THERE

The population of Washington, D. C., has jumped 37 per cent in the past ten years. Needless to say few of the thirty-seven per centers would join in any chorus of "We Want Willie!"

Word from Rome is that Mussolini has decreed that henceforth the Italians must get along with one type of spaghetti. We presume it is the streamlined kind.

We are certainly living in a machine age. If you don't believe it just look at Flynn in New York, Kelly in Chicago, Hague in Jersey City and Joe Guffy in Pennsylvania.

Wonder what Powhatan, Tecumseh and Sitting Bull would think if they were to come to life and see what the New Deal is doing to their country.

There is one advantage possessed by the man without friends. There is nobody to urge him to be a candidate.

Of course Franklin D. Roosevelt knows all about national crises. Why he can even make them.
