

Takes Oath as Secretary of Commerce

Jesse Jones, the Texas banker, who joined the Reconstruction Finance corporation under Herbert Hoover and became its chairman during the Roosevelt administration, will succeed Harry L. Hopkins as secretary of commerce. He is here shown at the White House receiving the oath of office from Justice Stanley Reed.

To Head Draft Board

Maj. Gen. Allen Gullion, advocate general of the United States army, who will be nominated by the President as chief of national draft board.

Sinews for America's Air Defense

An inspector browsing in a field of completed cylinders at the Pratt & Whitney plant, Hartford, Conn., where motors for U. S. army fighting craft are being turned out. This company was recently given contracts for $27,000,000 worth of motors. Inset: Night view of a section of the Pratt & Whitney plant as the work of building airplane engines for national defense continues, night and day, without a hitch.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Use potato water (a) when making stock; (b) when making gravy, and (c) if you are a bread-maker, use it for mixing the bread dough.

Keep the comb clean by washing it regularly in warm soap water to which has been added a little ammonia. The ammonia will aid in loosening the dirt. Rinse thoroughly and dry.

During the last stages of baking a cake a piece of greased paper on the top of it will allow the inside to cook through and keep the top from burning.

When a wire basket is used for frying croquettes, dip the basket into the hot fat before placing in the croquettes. The croquettes will not stick to it when done, and will be easy to remove.

A good way to test whether a fern requires water is to give the pot a sharp tap. If it sounds hollow it needs water, but if a dull sound is given out the soil is wet enough.

Canvas City for Mobilized National Guard

An aerial view of the tent city at Camp Dix, N. J., where some 9,200 National Guardsmen will be housed until construction of wooden barracks is complete. A total of 852 buildings, to handle at least 20,000 men, are being built. 60,500 guardsmen have just been mobilized for federal duty as the opening move to put 1,000,000 men under arms by January 1.

Wanted by Nazis

Adolf Hitler has just placed a price of $10,000 on the head of "Rudolph," Austrian patriot now in America, who was chief of the Austrian freedom station in France.

Scotch Children Seeking Refuge Here

A large group of some of the more than 300 Scotch children pictured on the S. S. Cameronia, when they arrived in the safety of the United States recently. The children, many of them accompanied, are destined for homes all over the United States. Germany has "washed its hands" of responsibility for the safety of ships bearing child refugees to America.

Helpless Victims of Nazi Cruelty

Jane, Jacqueline and John, three pitiful little inmates of the East Grinstead (England) sunshine home for blind babies, hurry to the home's air-raid shelter as Nazi bombs roar overhead during one of their "morale-softening" raids on non-military objectives in England. With the coming of channel storms and inland fog, military targets in England will be hard to find from the air, but the Nazis have lately acquired the habit of dropping their lethal cargoes almost anywhere over Britain.

Recovering

Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, ex-president and "strong man" of the Dominican Republic, who is recovering from a long illness, plans to vacation here for his health, after a complete physical checkup. He is shown on his arrival at Miami, Fla., by chartered plane, en route to New York for medical attention.

Scion of Rockefeller Clan Wed

David Rockefeller, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Jr., and his bride, the former Margaret McGrath, of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., leaving St. Matthews church in Bedford, N. Y., after taking their vows. Right: John D. Rockefeller Jr.

Hold That Tiger!

Ruby Mercer, fearless soprano star of "Gay New Orleans" at the New York fair, who spends much of her spare time playing with Frank Buck's "cats" when she isn't singing.

Weights Nearly a Ton—but Harmless!

This high-explosive shell, being unloaded for display at the British pavilion, New York World's fair, is an unfilled and harmless duplicate of those which the British royal railway artillery are hurling across the English channel in answer to the shells of the "Big Berthas" being used by the Nazis.

U. S. Drops Charges

Charges against Dr. Herbert Hoehne, seized in Los Angeles with German papers in his possession, have been dismissed by the U. S.

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

- In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.
- It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world: the feeling of being adequately prepared.
- When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. Thus advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.
