Mrs. Robinette Malone and Miss Florence Malone drove to Atkinson Sunday for a visit at the E. F. Spann home.

The Inman street sale was postponed Saturday on account of the rain.

Gil Echtenkamp spent the week end with his mother at Fremont.

Mrs. Wilmer Chicken passed away Saturday afternoon after a lingering illness of cancer. Funeral services were held from the Methodist church Tuesday and burial in the Inman cemetery. She is survived by her husband, Wilmer Chicken and three daughters, Mrs. Muriel Noe, of Orchard; Mrs. Dorothy Alexander, of Inman; Mrs. Wilma Goodin, of Gordon and two small grandchildren who have the sympathy of the entire community in their hour of sorrow.

One of the most interesting project lessons, "Do We Want Health" was taken up at the meeting of the Inman Workers Club at the meeting October 31 at the home of Mrs. Karl Keyes. Our president, Mrs. Karl Keyes conducted the business meeting. The roll was called and the minutes read by Mrs. F. E. Keyes. The project is one which every one should know about. Preventable diseases and the community's responsibility for public health and the establishment of a public health unit was discussed. Mrs. Hardin Anspach and Mrs. A. N. Butler presented the lesson. Mrs. James Cronk led in the singing of the October song. Mrs. J. McMahon, reading leader, gave a short talk followed by a report given by Mrs. James Coventry on rural librarian and book mobile. There were sixteen members and four visitors present and a covered dish luncheon served at noon.

Obituary

George B. Keefer was born April 8, 1866, in Columbia county, Pennsylvania, and died at Wilcox, Nebraska, November 10, 1940, at the age of 74 years. Mr. Keefer came to Inman in 1883. He was united in marriage to Miss Luella Tompkins. To this union three children were born, Ruth, Laura Marie and Lorena. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Ruth, and his wife who died in May, 1907. He resided in Holt county until 1928 when he moved to Wilcox, Nebr., to live with his daughter, Mrs. Fred Romig.

He is survived by one brother, his two daughters and five grandchildren.

Final services were conducted at the Inman Methodist church on Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., by the pastor, E. B. Maxey and the body laid away in the Inman cemetery.
