Estate No. 3482
In the County Court of Holt County, Nebraska, April 29th,

Body of D. E. Lukins, Lost in Blizzard, Found

60 Years Ago May 10, 1888
The village board held an interesting meeting last Thursday, at which there was a little war but no bloodshed. Two more saloons have taken out license, making 4 in all. The meeting of Monday evening was not of particular interest, but considerable business was transacted. Instructions were given to the marshal to see that the saloons that have not taken out license were not selling illegally and to see that the screens were taken down from the windows and doors of those now running.

Mrs. S. A. Adams gave a very unique party at her hospitable home on last Thursday evening. Young people to the number of about 30 participated in the enjoyments of the evening. Her large and commodious residence was thrown wide open and the guests moved at will through the handsomely furnished rooms.

At 12 o'clock delicious viands were spread before the appreciative guests. Among the guests from abroad were Mrs. O'Day and Mrs. Mathewson, of Neligh.

It is generally rumored that a Wild West show is to be organized somewhere in this vicinity soon. The main man is Charlie Wescott, who will do the clown act, turn double back "flips" off a foot pedestal and do a song and dance on an oyster can held on a 30-foot pole.
