Henry F. Reimer Weds in Colorado

In an impressive ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 26, in the United Presbyterian church at Loveland, Colo., the wedding of Miss Marjorie Henrikson, daughter of Mrs. Emma Henrikson and the late Arvel Henrikson, and Henry F. Reimer, son of County Judge and Mrs. L. W. Reimer, of O'Neill, was solemnized.

Dr. J. Reade McCrory read the double-ring vows in the presence of about 75 guests.

Miss Laurene Edmondson, organist, played a prelude of wedding music and accompanied Miss Betty Hamilton, who sang "At Dawning" and "Because." The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as the professional.

Mrs. Ted Harshbarger, of Estes Park, Colo., matron-of-honor, who is a sister of the bride, wore a dress of dusty rose, with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias. Charles Henrikson, brother of the bride, served as the bestman.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Milton Henrikson, wore an effec-ive gown of dusty blue crepe, with blue hat and white accessories. She had a corsage of gardenias. For the "something old and borrowed," she carried an heirloom handkerchief that belonged to her grandmother.

Following the wedding a reception was given in the Legion room of the Community building.

Following a honeymoon trip to the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Reimer will reside at O'Neill this summer.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Reimer are graduates of the University of Nebraska.

Shirley Hillestad, Robert Randleman Wed in Minnesota

In a beautiful wedding ceremony which took place at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, June 27 in St. Paul's Lutheran church at Nassau, Minn., Miss Shirley Wilma Hillestad, of O'Neill, became the bride of Robert R. Randleman, also of O'Neill.

Rev. Joseph Tetlie performed the double-ring ceremony in the candlelighted church decorated with ferns, baby breath and white peonies.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hillestad of Nassau, was dressed in a gown of white silk eyelet. The long sleeves pointed over the wrists and the floor-length skirt ended in a 3-yard train. The silk for the wedding gown was brought from Japan by Mr. Randleman, a veteran of World War II.

Miss Hillestad also wore an illusion veil held in place by a white silk "helmet" and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewelry was a locket worn by her mother on her wedding day.

Mrs. Leroy Luchinger, a sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. The 3 bridesmaids were Mrs. Palmer Skulbrstad, of O'Neill; Mrs. O'Dell Hegma, of Granite Falls, Minn., and Mrs. Gene Bendix, of St. Paul, Minn.

The 4 attendants were dressed alike in green gowns, fashioned similar to that worn by the bride, and carried yellow daisies.

The bride's mother, Mrs. O. J. Hillestad, wore a cream and black dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. M. J. Avelsgard, the mother of the bridegroom, wore navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Merritt Randleman, of Des Moines, Ia., was the bestman and Carvin Randleman, of Appleton, Minn., Wayne Randleman, of Ortonville, Minn., and Donald Randleman, of Ranville, Minn., served as ushers. All wore gray suits, maroon ties and carnation boutonieres.

Miss Gail Kaufman, the organist, wore a pale blue formal and a corsage of pink sweet peas. In furnishing the music for the occasion, she was assisted by Lynn Luchinger, a nephew of the bride, who sang "Dearly Beloved" before the ceremony and by Evelyn Titlie, who sang "O Perfect Lover" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held in the church parlors for 60 guests immediately following the ceremony. Miss Joan Wagner, of Nassau, was in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Randleman left for O'Neill. The bride's going-away outfit was a gray and pink dress with gray accessories.

The Randlemans will reside in O'Neill where the bridegroom operates the Randleman Cleaners.
