

Teen Tattler —

'Betty Grable' and 'Lana Turner' Show Up at Legion Club but, Alas, No Interviews

By MARY DEVINE BRENNAN

Hi again!
Does the old nursery rhyme, "Mary had a little lamb," often seem to apply to you, with slight revisions, of course?
Could be that you are having little sister trouble (or brother trouble) which is practically the same and that she sticks closer to you than Mary's lamb ever did to Mary.
Everywhere you go, she goes. Everything you do, she does. When you go to a movie with the gang, she cries because she wants you to stay home and play with her or, worse yet, she cries because she wants to go along.

And the way she gets into your clothes! She trails around the house in your extra-special new look dress. She smears your favorite lipstick all over herself, the mirror and your best white gloves. She makes a mess of your possessions in general and you learned long ago that it doesn't pay to keep a diary.

What can you do about it? Quite a bit. You see, the only thing that is wrong with your junior teen-ager is the fact that she's lonesome.

The 2 of you used to play together all the time when you were both small and now that you've grown up she still misses the "you" that used to be.

Your teen-ager world is all strange to her and though she loves you she can't understand you anymore.

You don't have time to tell her much so she finds out for herself by listening in on your phone conversations and reading your mail. She does it because what you do interests her.

She tags along with you and the gang because she likes to be near you. She dresses in your clothes and uses your most ultra perfume simply because she wants to be like you.

What greater compliments could you ask? Compliments or not you'd like to have a life of your own. Right?

Here are a few hints toward making life as sisters a little less like constant warfare. (With variations they can be applied to the bother brothers, too.)

1. Be a pal again—the next time you have a movie date on Friday night avoid the brewing storms by planning a picnic with Sis for Saturday afternoon. Make her feel that she is as important to you as the gang is and she won't be so determined to go with you all the time.

2. Try to help her grow up—take her shopping with you and buy her something "grown-up." A 10-cent tube of lipstick won't put much of a dent in your allowance. Help her pick it out and show her how to put it on. She'll feel old and sophisticated and quite willing to leave your lipstick alone. Pay attention to her clothes. Help her develop a little taste and persuade mother to let the 2 of you pick out a dress or 2 for her. When she likes her own clothes she won't care so much for yours, although she might appreciate it if you'd lend her your new print silk scarf or your silver bracelet on special occasions.

3. The third step is simply be patient. It may seem impossible right now and it may take a long time but the little sister will grow up and when she does you'll find her a friend worth having. Start building that friendship now.

The dance at the Legion club was quite an affair this week. Alice and her orchestra furnished the music and the big moment of the evening was when they played "We're Going to Be Happy," a new song, and a good one, written by Teen-Ager Barbara Streeter's uncle, Bine Streeter, of Brunswick.

It seems there were celebrities at the dance, too, but nobody recognized them. Anyway, the names Betty Grable and Lana Turner are listed on the register, and had we known they were there we could have interviewed them for the Tattler.

Donna Bowman and Wayne Harmon seemed to be having a wonderful time at Danceland Saturday night. Jean Froelich and Marilyn Moore had fun, too.

The Rural Youth organization is planning a super-duper delux booth for the Holt county fair. Wish I could tell you more about it but I don't know much myself.

Rumors are buzzing about that the Legion club will have another big name orchestra very soon, so keep watching for it.

There won't be a teen-age dance tomorrow night, but there will be one July 30.

The big Miss Holt County Legionnaire beauty contest will be tonight. Hope all of you girls have entered. See you there.

EMMET NEWS

Bill Dailey, of Winner, S. D., visited at the W. P. Dailey home recently.

Mrs. Geary Embody returned recently after spending a few days with her son, Donald Wagner, at Kearney.

Mr. and Mrs. Kieth Abart and Mrs. Keibitscheck, of O'Neill, visited at the Charles Abart home Sunday, July 11.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brainard and family visited at the Charles Fox home Saturday, July 10.

Misses Marybelle O'Connor, Darlene Summers and Norma Foreman visited Beth Sloan in Atkinson on Monday, July 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Kramer and Bobbie visited at the Paul Newton home on Sunday, July 11.

Miss Sharon Wagner was an over-night guest of Mrs. Wayne Fox on Friday, July 9.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tenborg and family of Chicago, Ill., spent several days recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cal Tenborg and Francis and other relatives.

Charlie Smith, of North Platte, spent a few days recently visiting Milt Lawrence.

Mary Helen Benze visited at the George Babl home last week.

Miss Olive Beckwith, of Lincoln, spent July 11 and 12 visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Johnson and family returned Saturday, July 10, after spending some time vacationing in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Buy it or sell it with a FRONTIER Want Ad.

REPUBLICAN STANDARD-BEARERS AND FAMILIES . . . Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, Republican presidential nominee, and his running mate, Gov. Earl Warren, of California, are shown with members of their families as they gathered together in Governor Dewey's suite in the Hotel Bellevue Stratford in Philadelphia, Pa., after being chosen unanimously to head the GOP ticket this year. The convention nominated Dewey unanimously on the third ballot and subsequently nominated Warren by acclamation. In the front row (left to right) are: Governor Warren, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Dewey and Governor Dewey. Back row (left to right) are Nina Warren, 14; Virginia Warren, 19; John M. Dewey, 12; Dorothy Warren, 17, and Thomas E. Dewey, Jr., 15.

Out of Old Nebraska —

George Catlin's Brush Captures the American Indians in Over 600 Paintings

By JAMES C. OLSON

A little more than 100 years ago a subject of constant fascination for a certain group of American artists was the American Indian. Even then the Indian was regarded as a vanishing race, and it seemed important to capture the look of this stalwart group of people, who once held complete domination over North America.

One of the first of these artists in the West—and the first really important one—was George Catlin. Although he was trained in the law and practiced for a time at Luzerne, Pa., he was much more interested in painting, and apparently considerably more successful before an easel than before a jury. In any event he moved to Philadelphia while still a young man and devoted his full time to painting.

While living in Philadelphia he saw a group of Indians walking through the streets and decided to devote his life to the painting of these original Americans in their native surroundings.

In carrying out that work he travelled to all parts of the country and endured many hardships. On various occasions he barely escaped with his life.

Catlin first came west in 1832 as a passenger on the steamer Yellowstone, which the year before had made the first steamboat trip to the upper Missouri river. At every possible opportunity the artist-explorer painted pictures of Indians, buffaloes, and western scenes. Among the Nebraska scenes captured by his brush were Blackbird Hill, the trading post at Bellevue and the junction of the Platte and Missouri rivers.

Catlin was the first white man to visit the red pipestone quarry on the Minnesota-South Dakota border, from which Indians all through the west got materials for making pipes. In his honor this stone now is called catlinite.

All told, Catlin produced more than 600 paintings of notable Indians and of their dwellings and equipment. These were exhibited in the United States and Europe and created a great deal of excitement wherever they were shown.

A great merit in Catlin's paintings is that he portrayed his subjects just as he saw them, and did not follow conventionalized pattern. Without his work the task of studying life in Nebraska prior to the coming of the white man would be much more difficult than it is.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ashby, of Lynch, spent Monday, July 12, in O'Neill visiting at the Earl R. Fox home.

Miss Loretta O'Malley returned to Omaha Sunday, July 18, after spending the weekend in O'Neill with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence O'Malley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Corke and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper went to Ewing Sunday evening, July 18.

Mrs. Mary E. Corke, of Tilden, visited her son, James Corke, and his family Sunday afternoon, July 18.

Vernon Johnson, of Sioux City, spent a week visiting Jack Gatz, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatz. He returned to Sioux City Wednesday, July 21. Jack returned with him and will visit the Johnson family for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spendlove and family, of Ainsworth, spent the weekend in O'Neill visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kurtz and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Crook.

Mrs. Leo Dowd and children, of Schuyler, arrived Saturday, July 17, for a short visit at the Laurence O'Malley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kiesow and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Huebner, of Fremont, Wis., left Saturday, July 17, after spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clyde.

The Misses Jude and Mary Ryan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Neil B. Ryan, left Saturday, July 17, for a week's vacation in Ewing with Mrs. Ryan's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bohm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Saindon, who are now residents of O'Neill, were weekend guests at the F. E. Saindon home.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rummel, of Los Angeles, Calif., visited Friday, July 16, at the home of Mrs. Rummel's cousin, Mrs. Thomas J. Sullivan, and with friends. Mr. Rummel is a former O'Neillite.

Mrs. Archie Findley and son, Duane, of Tilden were guests Monday, July 19, at the R. M. Sauers residence.

Miss Mary Lou Duffy, of Casper, Wyo., is spending her vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Simonson.

Mrs. Arlen Kirk, of Spencer, returned Monday, July 19, after having visited at the Thomas Donlin home, for 5 days. Mrs. Donlin left last Thursday, July 15, to visit her daughter in Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Havranek and Mrs. Hanna Semon, of Spencer, drove Jackie Sullivan home Friday, July 16, and visited with Jackie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Harmon, of Scottsbluff, left Wednesday, July 21, after visiting for 2 weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Johnson.

Dick Minton went to Omaha Tuesday, July 20. He plans to return in about a week. Mr. and Mrs. August H. Block and daughters, Mary El-

Mrs. Charles Green and 2 children returned to their home in Long Beach, Wash., last Thursday, July 15, after visiting for several days with relatives here.

Mrs. E. J. Eby went to Page over the weekend to visit with her brother, O. B. Stuart.

Miss Euthrasia Mitchell, of Albuquerque, N. M., will arrive in O'Neill Friday, July 23. She will be a guest of Mrs. Tom Enright.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Golden, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatz, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lohaus, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen P. Jaskowiak returned on Saturday, July 17. They had been vacationing for 2 weeks at the Eagle Lake sportsmen's camp at Vermillion Bay, Ontario, Canada. On the return trip they spent 2 days in Hampton, Ia., visiting Mrs. John Robinson.

Named Chairman of Club Dinner

Mrs. Frank Froelich is chairman of the committee in charge of preparations for the dinner to be given at the Country club Sunday evening, July 25. Mrs. John Watson is assistant chairman. The dinner will be served 6 and 7 p. m. All Country club members and their guests are invited.

Fetrows Entertain — Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fetrow entertained at a picnic in the Neligh park Sunday afternoon, July 18. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lorenz, of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cronk and family, Fred Cronk and Warren Cronk, all of Page, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wortman, of Neligh.

Mrs. Keller Is Hostess — Mrs. Mae Keller was hostess at a picnic held in the O'Neill park Sunday evening, July 18. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beemer, of Beemer, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McManigal, of Norfolk, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaness, of Fremont. All were weekend guests at the Keller home.

Mrs. Carter Hostess — Mrs. L. A. Carter entertained 6 friends Monday afternoon, July 19, at a party at the Carter home. A light luncheon was served.

GEO. C. ROBERTSON
Insurance	O'Neill	Bonds
Office: 1/2-block north of First National Bank
Real Estate		Loans

Distinctive Invitations

ANNOUNCE WEDDING BELLS

We specialize in quality wedding stationery . . . engraved or printed.

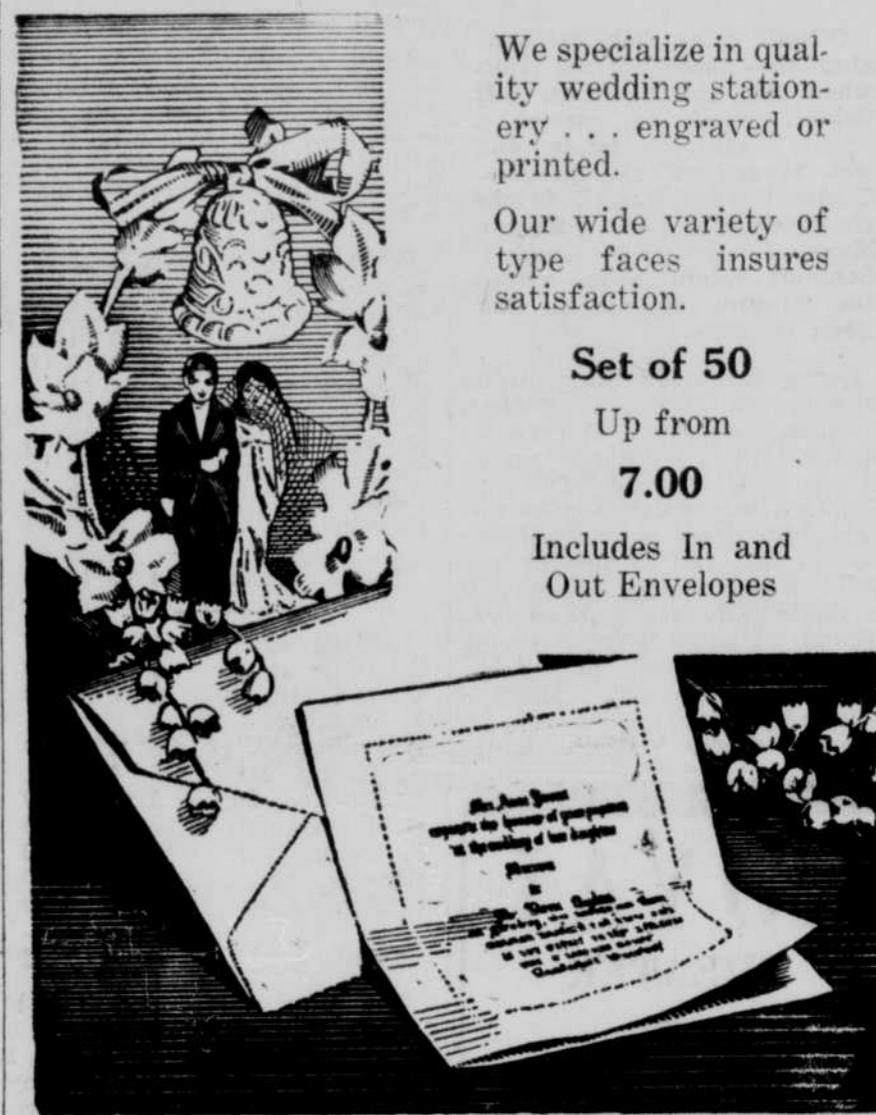

Our wide variety of type faces insures satisfaction.

Set of 50

Up from 7.00

Includes In and Out Envelopes

The FRONTIER

Printing Department

DRS. BROWN & FRENCH
Office Phone: 77
Complete X-Ray Equipment
Glasses Correctly Fitted

TRUCK TIRES

ALL SIZES

Come in and get our prices before you buy!

Gambles

O'Neill's Most Complete Shopping Center

Mortgage Loans
Business properties
Farm & FHA Home loans.
Term & payments to fit the individual case.
Kloke Investment Co.
Omaha 2, Nebraska

SERVEL
Gas Refrigerators
8-FT. DeLUXE
Now in Stock!
Gillespie's
RADIO - ELECTRIC - APPLIANCES
Phone 114 O'Neill