George A. Janousek Takes a Bride

Miss Geraldine Earline Hile, of Omaha, became the bride of George A. Janousek, of O'Neill, in a pretty church wedding here Saturday, July 31. Rt. Rev. J. G. McNamara officiated in the double-ring nuptial rites in St. Patrick's Catholic church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hile, of Columbus, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lod Janousek, of O'Neill.

The bride appeared in a gown of white satin with a "V" yoke of nylon marquisette, a long scalloped bodice trimmed with white satin roses. Her finger-ring veil of illusion fell from a tiara of white satin roses. She carried white gladioli and a white prayer book, and she wore a strand of pearls.

Miss Marie Schendt, of Omaha, was maid-of-honor, appearing in a dress of blush pink satin, fashioned with a long bodice, short sleeves and a rounded neckline. She wore a picture hat and mits of matching satin, and carried a nosegay of white asters.

The bestman was Raymond Janousek, of Brainard. Both men wore dark blue gabardine suits.

Ushers were George Bohn and Joseph Biglin. Miss Nancy Froelich and Dan DeBacker sang solos. Ushers were George Bohn and Joseph Biglin. Miss Nancy Froelich and Dan DeBacker sang solos. Ushers were George Bohn and Joseph Biglin. Miss Nancy Froelich and Dan DeBacker sang solos.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose a gray suit with white accessories. The couple departed on a 10-day trip to Colorado Springs, Colo. Upon their return they will be at home at 5315 North 25th street in Omaha.

A group of the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ronker, of Bellwood; Voleen and Merrill Dean Sylvester, of Bellwood; Mrs. James Janousek and son, Ray, of Brainard; Mrs. Henry Schuls and daughter, Ann Marie, of Ogallala; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beckwith, of North Platte; Mrs. Harry Schwartzlander and son, of Omaha; Mrs. Anna Rathovic, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Butkus and son, of Omaha; Miss Josephine Polito, of Omaha; Jack Gallagher, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hile, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Halva, of Lynch.

Mr. Janousek, who spent a year in the Navy, graduated from St. Mary's academy in 1945. This fall he will enter his third year at Creighton university in Omaha.
