Last Dinner of Series Attracts Many Visitors

The last in a series of Summer evening dinners at the Country club was held Sunday. Mrs. C. V. Sullivan, assisted by Mrs. Ed Campbell, was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Among the out-of-towners present were: Mr. and Mrs. Keith Delashmutt, of Elgin; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Galyen, Dr. and Mrs. N. P. McKee and daughter, Mary Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Chace, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Chace and daughter, Beverly Jane, all of Atkinson; Mrs. John Frenking and Mrs. A. Ralph Ellis, both of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle P. Dierks, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Huffman, all of Ewing; and Prof. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, of Hanover, N. H.

Five Girls Get-Together At Stantons

Miss Eileen Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stanton, entertained 4 girls at dinner Monday at her home here.

Matilda Claire Peter an O'Neill Bride

A beautiful all-white carnation wedding ceremony was solemnized at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, August 24, in St. Patrick's Catholic church here when Miss Matilda Claire Peter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peter, of O'Neill, became the bride of Rudy J. Pekny, son of Mrs. Anna Pekny, of Clarkson.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Cyril J. Werner. Miss Nancy Froelich sang solos.

The bride was attired in a bridal white faille silk gown, with a marquisette yoke edged in chantilly lace, a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, a full skirt fashioned with inserts of chantilly lace, and a long train. Her fingertip veil of silk net and illusion lace was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She wore pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of all white carnations.

Her attendants were her sister, Elsie, who wore a full-skirted, light pink gown trimmed in blue with a blue lace bonnet, and matching mitts, and Eleanor Walla, a cousin of the bridegroom, who wore a similar gown of light blue, trimmed in pink, with a pink lace bonnet, and matching mitts.

Both attendants carried cascade bouquets of white carnations and green ivy, and wore gold lockets, gifts of the bride. The bridegroom wore a dark blue suit with a white carnation boutonniere. His attendants were Louis Peter, a brother of the bride, who wore a dark blue suit, and Vince Zrust, a friend of the bridegroom, who wore a medium blue suit. Both attendants wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Peter wore a Paris blue dress with blue and white accessories. Mrs. Pekny wore a dark blue dress with black accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A 12 o'clock dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents for Rt. Rev. J. C. McNamara, Father Werner, relatives and friends. A 3-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and a large bell served as a centerpiece.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a dusty pink 2-piece suit dress of French crepe with white accessories. After their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Clarkson.

Mrs. Pekny is a graduate of St. Mary's academy with the class of 1942, and has been a rural teacher for 5 years. Mr. Pekny spent 3 years in the Army and is now employed as a welder at Howells.

Virginia Derickson Weds Elvin Scranton

DORSEY—Miss Virginia Derickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Derickson, of Dorsey, became the bride of Elvin Scranton, son of Leslie Scranton, of Plainview, at 2 o'clock Sunday, August 15, at the Methodist church with Rev. B. H. Hart officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Sick and Injured

LYNCH—Mrs. Ray Alford was taken to Rochester, Minn., this week for medical attention and possibly an operation. Mrs. Leland Moody and Shirley Ann are at present with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rossmeyer, near Verdel, since their dismissal from the hospital. Mrs. Mary Fusch is caring for Mrs. Steifvater, an invalid, at Verdel. Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Webber, who were unable to remain longer in their home due to their advanced age and ill health, are now being cared for at the Niobrara rest home. Joy Tusch, of Verdel, is recuperating here at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tusch, having recently been dismissed from the hospital. Mrs. Glen Davy, who was dismissed from the Sacred Heart hospital, is now recuperating at her home. Joann Rosicky is staying with her.

REDBIRD—William Hartland left for Omaha Sunday afternoon, August 15, for another X-ray treatment for the infection on side of one cheek. Miss Ardis Whetham, of Niobrara, is staying with Mrs. Hartland while he is away. Elden, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Krugman, of Opportunity, got a watermelon seed lodged in his windpipe. He was rushed to a doctor in Lynch on Monday, August 16. The doctor advised them to take the boy to Norfolk. Harold Halstead left Monday, August 16, for Rochester, Minn., by automobile to bring back his parents, the Leonard Halsteads, who had been at the Mayo clinic.

ATKINSON—Mr. and Mrs. Milo Hupp left for Omaha on Monday, August 23. Mr. Hupp entered St. Joseph's hospital there for possible surgery. Nicholas Schmidt returned on Friday from the Veterans' hospital at Lincoln. The same day his brother, Raymond, was caught in the power takedown of the threshing machinery where he was helping. He was very badly bruised and cut but no bones were broken. Nicholas and Raymond are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Smith, sr., of Atkinson.

O'NEILL—Grover Shaw returned last week from a hospital in Savannah, Ga. Mrs. Dick Robertson returned Saturday evening from Sioux City after visiting Mrs. George Hartford, who recently had submitted to a serious operation in St. Vincent's hospital. Mrs. Hartford is "doing well." Mr. Hartford returned Friday from a visit and went down again Sunday to see his wife.

CHAMBERS—Mrs. George Fullerton and Mary Lou Spath took the Fullerton children to Omaha Monday and remained until Saturday where they received treatments for asthma. Mrs. William Turner had the misfortune to fall Friday and injured her leg. Infection set in which has confined her to her bed for a few days.

DORSEY—A son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom White, of Dorsey, is a patient at Sacred Heart hospital at Lynch following injuries received in an automobile mishap on Friday evening, August 20. Other occupants of the car were Dean Oberle and Robert Carsten.

INMAN—Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hutton have received word that their daughter, Mrs. Vernon Green, has undergone a major operation at a Sioux City hospital. Reports from the hospital are that she is "recovering satisfactorily."

PAGE—Mrs. George Wettlaufer is a patient in Our Lady of Lourdes hospital at Norfolk where she submitted to a major operation. Her condition is "improved." Mrs. O. B. Stuart is at the hospital at O'Neill for observation.

CELIA—E. W. Samms went to Sioux City Sunday, August 22, to enter St. Joseph's hospital for an operation Monday morning.

Picnic Is Held for

On Wednesday evening the Martez club held a picnic on the W. J. Froelich farm. Among the out-of-towners attending were: Miss Mae Hammond, of Omaha, Mrs. James Berrigan, of Atkinson, and Miss Genevieve Biglin, of Sioux City.

Departs for Washington

Mrs. W. E. Gannon left this week after visiting 10 days with her mother, Mrs. Letta Sexsmith. Her home is in Kent, Wash.

Mrs. Lundgren Is Hostess — The chairman of the Wednesday fortnightly bridge-luncheon for members of the Country club and their guests was Mrs. C. E. Lundgren. She was assisted by Mrs. O. W. French and Mrs. Dale French.

Mrs. L. G. Gillespie Is Hostess — The Past Noble Grand's club of the Rebekah lodge met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs.

L. G. Gillespie. Fourteen ladies were present.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morrison were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davidson and daughter, Mary, of Casper, Wyo.

Mrs. Frank Hink, of Winslow, Ariz., left Monday after a 6-days' visit with the Earl E. DeLong family and other relatives.
