Miss Irene Searles
an O'Neill Bride

John H. McCarville
Weds in Minnesota

A beautiful double-ring ceremony was solemnized on Thursday, August 26 at 2 p. m. in the Holiness church of O'Neill when Irene Searles, daughter of Frank Searles, of O'Neill, and Percy Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Anderson, of Redbird, said their marriage vows before a flower bedecked altar. Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, church pastor, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a white dress of heavy satin. The neckline was finished with embroidery and the sleeves were long, trimmed with a ruffle of lace. It was fashioned with a long train. She wore a fingertip veil of white net held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms and carried a white Bible on which a beautiful orchid was placed.

The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She also had the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue," and a penny in her shoe.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Gladys Searles, the bride's sister-in-law. The bridesmaid was Miss Gloria Lech, of Atkinson, and the junior bridesmaid was Miss Irene Searles, the bride's sister, and Miss Jeanene Johnson, of Emmet, the bride's cousin.

They were dressed in formal length dresses of blue. They wore short white veils held in place with white orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Jo Ann Searles, another sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink formal and carried a glass vase from which she picked her flowers.

Karen Johnson, of Emmet, and Roland Johnson, of O'Neill, were ringbearers. The little girl wore a blue formal and the little boy a brown suit. They carried the rings on light blue satin pillows.

The bridegroom wore a light blue business suit. His best man, Austin Searles, brother of the bride, wore a brown suit and his junior attendant, Keith Anderson, wore a blue suit.

The ushers were Lyle Anderson, of Long Pine, and Merlyn Anderson, of Redbird, brother of the bridegroom. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with white trim. Miss Bonnie Hubby accompanied on the piano by Mrs. H. L. Lindberg, sang "As the Years Go By," "The Lord Is My Shepherd," and "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

See Nebraska on Parade State Fair, Sept. 5-10

It's State Fair time again—time when all good Cornhuskers watch with pride as their state goes on parade. Tremendous inspiration comes to everyone in viewing the state's mighty panorama of accomplishments in many fields—agricultural, industrial, educational and others.

Not the least of Nebraska's accomplishments is in the field of brewing industry self-regulation, a program designed to help prevent abuses connected with the handling of beer. Through this program the brewing industry works for ever higher standards in the distribution of its product. Beer retailers are instructed and encouraged to observe every regulatory statute, particularly those prohibiting sales to minors and intoxicated persons, and sales after hours, . . . the maintenance of clean, neat, sanitary places . . . and the elimination of any conduct which might be displeasing or irritating to the public. Ten years of this program has helped build in Nebraska one of the brewing industry's most valued assets—a good name.

Wanted - Brains!

(Not Dead but Alive)
More today than ever our country needs good heads. To encourage scholarship we are offering a reward. This is our plan: Secure a receipt for every purchase of 50c or more that you, your friends or your relatives make at our store. At the end of the FIRST six weeks of school, bring in your receipts and your report card. For every $5 in receipts we will pay you, if in grade school, 5c for each "A"; if in high school, 10c for each "A."

It was erroneously stated in The Frontier last issue that the receipts were to be brought to the store at the "end of the last six weeks." This was an error. The advertisement should have read: ". . . at the end of the first six weeks" (as appears in the top paragraph.)
