tons daily of these supplies. A minimum of 4,500 tons is required. This figure will be definitely attained by October 1, under present U. S. and British plans.

By that date, the necessary transport planes, personnel, and ground facilities will be in operation to ensure a delivery of at least 4,500 tons of supplies every day regardless of weather conditions.

The program calls for the U. S. to transport 3,300 tons and the British 1,200 tons.

Wry Jest

When it enacted the European recovery program, congress wrote into the law an unwitting wry jest on W. Averell Harriman. The gangling former secretary of commerce is ambassador-at-large in Europe in the administration of the act. His official title, as specifically designated by congress, is "United States special representative."

The initials of that title are U. S. S. R.—which also stands for the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Farm Income High

Despite the tapering off of grain prices, total farmer income this year will approximate 1947's record of $30,500,000,000.

Following the commodity-market break last Spring, government experts were fearful of a marked slump in farmer income. The fears were needless.

Preliminary statistics show that grower income will be a little less, if any, than last year's record-smashing peak.

That's good news in the national economic picture. It means no falling off in the vital segment of farmer buying. And when the farmer buys freely, industrial activity stays high.

Exudes Optimism

Adverse polls and political reports are having no effect on President Truman. He continues to exude complete confidence that he will win.

When a senate friend called at the White House, the President lost no time in asking him to make some campaign speeches for him.

"It's going to be tough going," the senator said.

"It's always tough going in a fight," Mr. Truman retorted cheerfully. "But I want to tell you one thing. I can still beat Dewey. I can take him, and I'm going to take him. He's got some surprises in store for him."

Comment by Rep. Edward Hebert, rabid Dixiecrat from Louisiana: "The trouble with Harry Truman is that he takes his own advice."

Secret Ambition

President Truman has a secret ambition. He revealed it to Tappan Gregory and Joseph Stetcher, American Bar association official, during their White House call.

"You know," the President said, "I studied law two years. Then I helped make law for a number of years as a senator. Now, as Chief Executive, I am enforcing the law."

"In fact," he added wistfully, "I feel qualified to be admitted to the bar. I think I'd make a pretty good lawyer."

Upsetting the Appicart

CIO chiefs have inside word that the indictment of the 12 Communist party leaders has thrown a monkey wrench into Leftists' plans to set up a national labor organization.

The secret scheme was to pull certain Communist-controlled unions out of the CIO as the nucleus for a new outfit. Among these unions are the electrical workers, the office and professional workers, the mine, mill and smelter workers and the tobacco and agricultural workers.

This planned "walkout" was in line with Communist tactics in other countries, where separate labor organizations are being set up.

But apparently, the conspiracy indictments raised hob with the scheme in the U. S. and they pulled in their horns.
