Brother and Sister Figure in Church Double Wedding

A brother and sister figured in a double wedding at St. Patrick's Catholic church here at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning when Miss Mary Loretta Hickey became the bride of Samuel P. Fuhrer and Margaret Jurgensmeier exchanged nuptial vows with Francis J. Hickey.

In the Hickey-Fuhrer rites, the bride was given in marriage by her father, P. V. Hickey.

The bride was gowned in white slipper satin with long sleeves, a sweetheart neckline, and a fitted bodice with a 3-yard train. Her fingertip veil was crowned with a pearl tiara. She wore a 5-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of red roses.

Miss Margaret Hickey, sister of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of yellow chiffon, with short sleeves and a gathered bodice. Her head dress was a yellow shoulder length veil topped with a half-halo of fushia flowers. She carried a bouquet of fushia snapdragons.

Mrs. Fuhrer graduated from St. Mary's academy with the class of 1943, and graduated from the St. Vincent's hospital school of nursing at Sioux City with the class of 1946. She has since followed her profession in Omaha, Kansas City, Mo., and Rapid City, S. D.

The bridegroom wore a blue business suit. He was attended by Hugh Benson, a friend.

Mr. Fuhrer graduated from Butte high school with the class of 1941 and has since worked with the O'Neill Photo Co. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fuhrer, of Butte. The couple expects to make their home in O'Neill after a brief honeymoon.

Margaret Jurgensmeier was given in marriage by Hugh Benson, a friend. She wore a white satin gown with a chifon neckline, fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses, and her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Delbert Robertson, sister of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor. Mrs. Robertson was gowned in blue chifon. Her gown was made with short sleeves, a gathered bodice and her head dress was a blue shoulder length veil topped with a half halo of fushia flowers. She carried fushia snapdragons.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin of O'Neill. She graduated from St. Mary's academy with the class of 1938.

The bridegroom wore a cocoa brown suit of gabardine. He was attended by his brother, Patrick E. Hickey, who wore a blue business suit.

Mr. Hickey is a graduate of St. Mary's academy with the class of 1941. He served 3 years in the Army in Europe during World War II and since his discharge has farmed with his father, near O'Neill.

A wedding breakfast for both couples and their immediate families was served at the M & M Cafe and a reception was held later at the Hickey farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest D. Riley and Judy Marie were guests of Mr. Riley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riley, Sunday and Monday.

TECHNICALLY THEY WERE STOWAWAYS . . . There is always a record of one kind or another being set somewhere, but this one is a little different. These five infant "stowaways," shown here with Nurse Carol Donoghue, were born aboard the American President Lines vessel General W. H. Gordon on a voyage across the Pacific from the Orient. It was a post-war record for births in one trip and possibly an all-time mark for a Pacific crossing.
