Mary L. Young an O'Neill Bride

Before an altar of varied colored asters at the Presbyterian church Sunday, September 12, Miss Mary L. Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Young, became the bride of Carroll Summerer, of Chambers. Rev. Ralph Gerber performed the 2 p. m. ceremony.

Miss Marjorie Summerer, of Chambers, a cousin of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Stanley Young, the bride's brother, served as bestman. The bride appeared in a dark grey street-length dress. It was silk and had tiers, which formed cape sleeves. The waist was of basque style and the skirt was full. Her accessories were black. She, also, wore a necklace of pearls, which was a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a lavender orchid.

Miss Summerer wore a brown dress with green and brown accessories. Her bouquet was of white mixed flowers.

The bridegroom was attired in a dark brown suit. The bestman wore a light brown suit. They both had carnation boutonniers.

Mrs. Grant Peacock, of Emmet, accompanied by Mrs. Gerber, sang "One Alone" and "I Love You Truly."

Refreshments were served at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate family, friends and relatives. Mrs. Robert Summerer, of Chambers, baked the three-tiered wedding cake.

The young couple left for a trip to the Black Hills and vicinity.

Mrs. Summerer was graduated from O'Neill high school in the class of 1945. She has been an employee of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company in O'Neill.

Mr. Summerer, who served 2½ years overseas in World War II, is a graduate of the Chambers high school.

After their trip, Mr. and Mrs. Summerer will reside on a farm six miles southeast of Chambers.
