

Ruth Smith Weds in Church Nuptials

CHAMBERS—A pretty wedding took place Sunday, September 12, at the Baptist church in Chambers when Ruth Smith became the bride of Robert ("Bob") Adams. The single ring ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock in the morning by Rev. Ward Smith before an altar decorated in ferns, white gladioli, lemon yellow marigold and white satin streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a fingertip veil of illusion held in place by a seeded pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses and wore a three-strand pearl necklace. The bride, sister of the bride, Doris Smith, served as bridesmaid. She wore a gown of yellow taffeta and carried a bouquet of white roses and asters and yellow snapdragons.

The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, Max Farrier, Raymond Walter and Vernon Smith were ushers.

Mrs. George Smith sang "God Gave Me You" and "I Walk Beside You." Mrs. Ernest Farrier accompanied her and also played the wedding music.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, wore a grey dress and corsage of pink snap dragons. Mrs. Adams, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black dress and corsage of yellow snapdragons.

Mrs. Adams is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, of Chambers, and a graduate of the Chambers high school with the class of 1948. She has assisted in her father's stores for several years.

Mr. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Adams, of Chambers, and graduated from Chambers high school with the class of 1947. He has been trucking since his graduation.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for about 25 relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple left for a short trip.

Bride-Elect Feted At Shower

HOWDY, FOLKS . . . Little Marilyn Kay Dorr, (right), is the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dorr, of Page. She was born in the Orchard hospital on April 18, 1945. Marilyn Kay has blonde hair and big brown eyes. She boasts of loving cats and dogs, but often exhibits scars of those which weren't quite of the friendly type. The handsome—and dubious—fellow on the left is Michael Gallagher, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gallagher, of O'Neill. Mike is not only a comparatively new comer to the world, but is also new to O'Neill. His ancestors, however, on the paternal side, were among the original settlers here. Michael's first words were "Mama" and "butcher knife."
