She carried white roses on a white Bible, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's attendant was Marshall Howe, a nephew, of Fremont. Ushers were Harlan Larson and Edwin Trenopahl.

The candles were lit by Kathryn Hoffman and Rose

Marie Gibson before an altar banked with many flowers, potted plants and evergreen, and an arch entwined with Autumn vines and leaves.

A reception was held in the bride's home for 50 guests following the ceremony.

The bride served 20 months in the WAVES. She graduated in June from Northwestern university at Chicago, Ill., with a certificate in dental hygiene.
