METHODIST (Page)

Rev. T. O. Brownfield, pastor
Church school, 10 a. m.; morning worship, 11 a. m.; Youth Fellowship, 7:30 Sunday evening. Choir practice, Thursday evening, 8:30.

The young married people's class met Friday evening for a social in the church parlors with a large group present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris had charge of the entertainment and several interesting games were played. Mrs. Harold Heiss is the teacher of this class and Mrs. Carl Max was chairman of the serving committee. Group singing closed the evening's entertainment, and it was a pleasant occasion for all.

The King's Daughters met Tuesday evening, October 5, with Mrs. Carl Max. Eighteen were present and enjoyed the evening. Mrs. Marvin Stauffer had charge of the lesson on "Alaska," and Mrs. Frank Beeleart led the devotions.

Plans were made to sponsor a baked food booth for the bazaar; also a mystery booth. A lunch was served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bill Sorensen.

The WSCS met for a regular meeting on last Thursday afternoon with a large group present. Mrs. Raymond Heiss led an interesting lesson on "Alaska." Plans were made for the bazaar, and also for a covered dish dinner on Sunday, October 24, at the church with the district superintendent as a guest. The first quarterly conference will be held at that time, and everyone is invited. Mesdames Bertha Prill and Leona Smith served a lunch.

The MYF cabinet met at the parsonage on Thursday evening and made plans for their work. They also planned for a skating party with the Chambers MYF.
