PAGE—On Saturday, October 16, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Iris Adamson, of O'Neill, became the bride of Elvin Stevens, of Norfolk, formerly of Page. They were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage at Norfolk. Rev. C. T. Hawes performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Vernon Parks, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's attendant and Vernon Parks, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was bestman.

The bride was attired in a lime green wool dress with gold and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom was dressed in a medium gray suit with a light blue pin stripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Brandt, of Atkinson, were the only guests.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party had dinner at the Waldorf hotel.

Mrs. Stevens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Adamson, of O'Neill. She graduated from O'Neill high school in 1946. Since then she has been employed at Shelhamer's in O'Neill.

Mr. Stevens is the eldest son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan Stevens. He graduated from Page high school in 1940, and went to the Navy soon afterward where he spent four years. After his discharge from the service, he worked for sometime for Western Electric Telephone company. He is now employed with the Norfolk Daily News at Norfolk, where the couple will reside.
