Miss Irene Whaley Weds in Church Ceremony Here

At a double-ring ceremony at the Methodist church in O'Neill Sunday morning, October 24, at nine o'clock, Miss Irene Whaley became the bride of Clyde D. Wengert, of Omaha. Rev. V. R. Bell officiated.

Tapers were lighted at the altar by Donna and Alice Whaley, sisters of the bride. The wedding march was played by Carrie Wilson, cousin of the bride. "Because" and "One Alone" were sung by Margaret Wilson and Twila Whaley, cousin and sister of the bride, respectively.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Wallace Hansen, of Omaha, a close friend of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Wallace Hansen, close friend of the bridegroom, acted as bestman.

The bride was attired in a royal blue crepe afternoon dress with bronze accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze mums, with removable corsage. She wore a single strand of pearls, borrowed from the bridegroom's mother, and a gold bracelet, worn by her mother at her wedding, carrying out the "borrowed" and "old" tradition.

The bridesmaid wore a gray crepe afternoon dress with black accessories and carried a bouquet of pink and yellow mums with removable corsage.

The bride's mother wore gray with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore gray with pink accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations and white mums.

The bridegroom was dressed in a medium gray suit and wore a white carnation boutonniere. The bridegroom's attendant wore a brown pin-stripe suit and a white carnation boutonniere.

A 12:30 p. m. dinner was served for immediate relatives and Rev. and Mrs. Bell at the home of the bride's parents. It was served by Mrs. Aaron Boshart, Mrs. James McNulty, Mrs. Merritt Pierson and Mrs. Harry Lansworth, and served by the Misses Helen Bowden, Elzene and Betty Thomas, and Twila Hicks. A three-tiered wedding cake served as centerpiece for the bride's table.

A reception for friends was held from 2 until 5 p. m. Margaret Wilson had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Wengert is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whaley, of O'Neill. She graduated from the O'Neill high school in 1944 and attended Norfolk junior college. Since then she has been employed at the Union Pacific headquarters in Omaha.

Mr. Wengert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wengert, of Omaha. He graduated from Omaha Technical high school in 1939 and later attended Boyle's business college. He served 33 months in the Navy in the Pacific theater. After his discharge, he returned to his position at Union Pacific headquarters in Omaha, where he is employed.

For going-away, the bride wore a Winter white wool dress with brown accessories. The young couple left for a week's honeymoon in Denver, Colo., and other points West. They will be at home in Omaha after November 1.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wengert, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hansen and the Misses Carrie and Margaret Wilson, all of Omaha; Elroy Walrod, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walrod, and Miss Dorothy Walrod, all of Norfolk.

The Last Minute club met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Wilson Wednesday evening, October 20. Mrs. Melvin Marcullus was a guest. Mrs. Leo Carney won high.

Lois Ann Cole, Larry Schaffer Exchange Vows

Miss Lois Ann Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cole, of Emmet, Saturday became the bride of Larry Schaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schaffer, at the Methodist church here. Rev. W. C. Birmingham, of Atkinson, officiated at the 2 p. m. ceremony.

The church was decorated with white pom poms and ferns. Miss Betty Harris, a cousin of the bride, accompanied by Miss Esther Kinnier, sang "Because" and "Yours Is My Heart Alone."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in an original gown designed by herself and made by her mother. It was of ivory satin fashioned with an Elizabethan collar embroidered with seed pearls and bugle beads. Its tight fitting bodice and full skirt ended in a three-yard train. The front of the skirt was slashed to show a petticoat of ruffles of imported lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a satin hat styled to match the collar of the gown. Her cascade bouquet was of cream gladioli and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Schaffer, a sister of the bridegroom, and sorority sister of Miss Cole, was maid-of-honor. Mrs. G. Owen Cole, a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron-of-honor. The bridesmaids were: Miss Beth Wilson, of Burwell, and Miss Rozella Widows, of Glenwood, Ia., a sorority sister of the bride. Miss Jean Cole served as junior bridesmaid for her sister. The gowns of all the attendants were made alike and designed by the bride and made by her mother.

The matron-of-honor appeared in American beauty changeable taffeta. The bridesmaids' gowns were green and American beauty changeable taffeta. Each gown had a tight-fitting bodice with a wide shoulder drape caught with clips. The skirt was designed with two wide double ruffles forming an apron effect in front and caught to form a bustle in the back.

The attendants' headdresses were of shirred matching taffeta with matching veils. Their colonial bouquets were of dyed carnations to match the American beauty gowns and white pom poms.

Miss Elizabeth Schaffer, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Lou Conard, of Emmet, wearing white satin choir robes, lighted the tapers.

Robert Cole, the bride's brother, served as bestman for Mr. Schaffer. The ushers were: Keith DeLashmuth, of Elgin; G. Owen Cole, the bride's brother, of Emmet; Dr. George Cook and Eugene McKenna, of O'Neill. Mr. DeLashmuth and Mr. Cole are fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

A reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony in the church parlors. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Schaffer, who was graduated from O'Neill high school in 1946, attended Colorado Women's college in Denver, and also attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

Mr. Schaffer graduated from O'Neill high school in 1945 and attended the University of Nebraska. He is affiliated with Sigma Nu. After a wedding trip, the young couple will reside on a ranch south of Emmet, where Mr. Schaffer is associated in ranching with his father.

Out-of-town guests included: Miss Phyllis Hoke, of Rapid City, S. D.; Mrs. Sibyl Maring, of Sioux City, Ia.; Mrs. John Rohde and Mildred, J. C. Tullos, all of Cheyenne, Wyo.; Mrs. Joseph Montange, of Merville, Ia.; Miss Mary Hischeik of Billings, Mont.; Miss Adele Duvey of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Boek, of Burlington, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fallers, of Council Bluffs, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Kieth DeLashmuth, of Elgin; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gribble, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Larkin, jr., all of Omaha; Mrs. J. A. Wilson, of Burwell; Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGrew, of Seward; Mrs. Mary J. Stinson, of Dakota City; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schaffer and Kathleen, of Tekamah; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eisenhour and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gribble, Warren Gribble and BLOCKADED BERLINERS MAKE COAL . . . With coal on the scarce item list in blockaded Berlin, the Germans in the American sector have put on their thinking caps and come up with an "ersatz" coal which supplies six times as much heat as real coal. It is a combination of coal dust, sawdust and a tar substance and sells in brick form. Here, a housewife uses some of the new coal in her kitchen stove, since electricity and gas have been rationed.

NEW MEXICO INDIANS WIN RIGHT TO VOTE . . . Deputy clerk Julia Sedillos, left, registers a group of Navajo Indians from Tohatchi as voters in Gallup, N. M. Two recent Federal Court rulings in Santa Fe gave the right to all New Mexican Indians to register and vote if they met other residence requirements. The state constitution had previously denied them the right to vote because they paid no property tax while living on reservation lands.
