BOBBIE AND THE GIANT . . . Little Bobbie Gravelyn, 13 months, stands beside the giant 511/2-pound squash grown by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hammond, sr., in Grand Rapids, Mich. It grew from a chance seed buried with the garbage, on a 47foot vine which also bore two football-sized squash.

PLEAS IN VAIN . . . Mrs. Walter Cornhauser, kneeling, pleads in vain with her dead husband to "wake up" after a Chicago, Ill. fire department inhalator squad worked unsuccessfully for 30 minutes to revive him. The 62-year-old man suffered a heart attack in an elevator while taking his dog for a walk.

EWING TIGERS BURY TILDEN, 26-6

Holt Powerhouse Rolls Towards Corn Belt Championship

EWING—The Ewing Tigers moved into an advantageous position in the Corn Belt conference by downing the Tilden Tigers, 26-6, Friday in a loop game under the Ewing arcs. Ewing displayed the brand of driving power which has gained recent victories over O'Neill, Atkinson and Bassett. Against Tilden, Ewing netted 267 yards by rushing the ball and made 19 first downs to Tilden excelled Ewing in passing, completing six for 61 yards, compared to Ewing's three for a total gain of 27 yards. Two of Ewing's first downs were awarded on pe-

Early in the first quarter, Ewing pointed to a win. Tilden received, but the visitors were unable to gain.
They punted to Ewing's 35yard-line. From that point, Ewing used 12 plays to score. Pruden carried the ball over from the three, but failed to kick the point.

Tilden came back fighting.

Zurcher snagged a pass and gained 22 yards for Tilden. There was a fumble on Ewing's 28. It wasn't long until Ewing went on the march again an carried the ball acress again with Sanders making the touchdown. Tilden made another bid to score in the first half, but stopped on Ewing's 28.

the first half, but stopped on Ewing's 28.

Early in the second half, Tilden stopped Ewing on the two, but had trouble punting out of danger. Ewing got the ball on Tilden's 30. Several line plays, including a pass from Sanders to Bennett and a pair of Sanders' end runs put him across the goal line for the third score. Charvat took a pass from Sanders for the extra point.

Tilden's score was made ear-the extra point.

Tilden's score was made early in the fourth. After working the ball to Ewing's 23 yard line, James ran the 23 yards on a neat fake reverse.

Ewing's fourth touchdown came after Tilden's score. After Pruden intercepted a Tilden pass on Tilden's 40, the combination of Pruden's offtackle slants, Sanders' around end skirmishes and Cloyd's reverses put Sanders across.

Pruden plunged across for the extra point, making the score the prints.
