Margaret Agnes a 'Good Neighbor'

Mrs. Margaret Agnes, of Norfolk, formerly of O'Neill, was named the "Good Neighbor of the Day" on the "Breakfast in Hollywood" program on Wednesday, November 24, and an orchid was sent to her.

Mrs. Agnes is the widow of the late George Agnes, veteran O'Neill lumberman. She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Donohoe, Holt county pioneer couple.

The following letter, written by Mrs. Mel Remender, president of the Residers club at Norfolk, was read on the program by Jack McElroy, master of ceremonies:

"For your (McElroy) award to the Good Neighbor of the Day, we wish to offer for your consideration Mrs. Margaret Agnes, of Norfolk, Neb.

"Seven years ago Mrs. Agnes, a widow, evolved the idea of starting a 'courtesy hostess' service in Norfolk. The idea was sold to local business men who sponsored advertising in a booklet which was presented to each newcomer to our fair city. Her project has been quite successful as evidenced by the large membership in her two clubs, the Newcomers, with over 500 past and present members, and her Residers club, with 130 members.

"We have all learned to know Margaret Agnes as a personal friend in every need. She is blessed with a super abundance of good judgment and personable manner."

Harrison-Matschullat Nuptials at Orchard

PAGE—Miss Barbara Joan Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harrison, of Lincoln, and Harry Dale Matschullat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Matschullat, of Page, were united in marriage Saturday morning, November 27, at 10 o'clock at the Evangelical Lutheran church at Orchard. Rev. Phillip Wirth, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Their only attendants were the sister and brother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Albert Anthony, of Bloomfield, and Wayne Matschullat, of St. Cloud, Minn.

The bride was attired in a pink crepe draped dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of split-white carnations. Mrs. Anthony wore a grey crepe dress with pink accessories and corsage.

The bridegroom wore a light brown suit with white carnation boutonniere and his attendant wore a blue suit with pink carnation boutonniere.

The bride's going-away dress was a two-piece green crepe.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was given a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents for 18 of the immediate relatives.

The bride was born and reared in Lincoln. She attended the University of Nebraska and was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

The bridegroom was born near Page, where he graduated from the Page high school. He entered the University of Nebraska in 1941. He was called to service and fought on Okinawa in the Pacific area. After his discharge he reentered the University and completed his education in August.

Shortly after the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Matschullat left for their home in Moline, Ill., where Dale has employment with Sears, Roebuck & Co.

Beulah Janoucek, Ray Winkler Wed

EMMET—Ray Winkler, formerly of Emmet, and Beulah Janoucek, of North Platte, were united in marriage Saturday, November 27, at St. John's Catholic church at North Platte.

The bride chose a grey suit with black accessories and was attended by Miss Yvonne Lamarre, also of North Platte, who wore a rust suit with black accessories. Both wore corsages of red roses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler, of Emmet, was attended by his brother, Harold. Both wore dark suits and white carnation boutonnieres.

After a brief honeymoon through the West they will reside at North Platte where he has employment.

Price-Luken Nuptials Said Here Saturday

At a quiet ceremony Saturday at 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Marialice Price, daughter of Mrs. Anna Bromwell and niece of Miss Elja McCullough, became the bride of Daniel Luken, of Omaha. Rev. Ralph Gerber united them in marriage at the Presbyterian manse.

Mrs. Gerber played the wedding music, "Arioso," by Bach, and "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell. Mrs. Howard B. Holliday, accompanied by Mrs. Gerber, sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride appeared in a red woolen suit and black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The couple left for Omaha where they will reside.

Visitors from Atkinson — Mr. and Mrs. John Ross and family, of Atkinson, spent Thanksgiving as guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Ross.
