Civic Group Meets by Candlelight
EWING — Even a blizzard cannot stop the newly-organized Ewing Commercial club from meeting. Over 30 members, including a few brave women, met during the blizzard on Thursday evening, November 18. They had supper at the Green Lantern cafe — by lantern light. Business was conducted at Rocky's, where there is an electric plant.

Maj. Seger Gets New Assignment
Maj. Henry L. Seger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Seger, of Inman, was recently assigned to the 92d Bombardment Wing, Spokane (Wash.) air force base, it was announced this week by Col. James E. Briggs, commanding officer. Spokane air force base is the largest bomber base on the West coast and is the home of the famous 92d and 98th Bomb Groups. It is under the jurisdiction of the Fifteenth Air Force of the Strategic Air Command. Planes and personnel from this wing may be ordered to such places as Germany, Japan and Alaska. Major Seger attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, graduating in 1933 with a B. S. in education. He received a commission of second lieutenant on July 17, 1932.

Plans were made to take the high school football team to the Norfolk all-sports banquet sponsored by the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, December 1. The club members decided to foot the bill for the banquet and provide transportation.

Plans also were made for the community Christmas program. The entertainment committee was asked to provide a treat for the children on the Saturday before Christmas and to arrange for the playing of Christmas music on main street for several weeks before Christmas.

The civic improvement committee was asked to secure a Christmas tree and place it with appropriate decorations in the town square. It was decided to have the club sponsor a home and store window Christmas decoration contest. The best decorations are to be chosen by out-of-town judges and winners will have their names published in local papers.

The need for eliminating traffic hazard at the west entrance to main street was discussed. President John Walker announced the following committee chairmen: Membership, Harold Savidge; civic improvement, Frank Uridil; finance, M. B. Huffman; entertainment, Waldo Davis; children's recreation, Frances Rotherham; good roads, J. Q. Archer, and publicity, C. D. Vogel.

Miss Mildred Harbottle spent Thanksgiving with her brother, John Harbottle, Mrs. Harbottle and Mary Susan. Miss Harbottle, who formerly resided in Pomona, Calif., was enroute to Buffalo, N. Y., where she will make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King and son left Wednesday, November 24, for their home in Phoenix, Ariz., after having been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Grady.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clements met their son, Robert, in Norfolk and continued on to Pilger where they were joined by their daughter, Miss Donna Rae, of Omaha, and a friend of hers. They spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Clements' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Psotto. They returned Friday.

Mrs. Lloyd Sexton's mother, Mrs. Miller, who has been here for about a month, returned to Sioux Falls, S. D., after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Froelich entertained their daughters, the Misses Jean and Jane, of Omaha, and Mrs. B. E. Wanser, Mr. Wanser and daughter, for Thanksgiving. The Wansers returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mang-an, Marilyn and Henry, jr., left Sunday for Greeley where they met their daughter, Sister Maria del Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Moore and Miss Rosamond Mangan. From there they went to Grand Island where they spent the day visiting. They returned that evening. Sister Maria del Ray went on to McCook, accompanied by Sister Geralda.
