Miss Maude Mellor a Sunday Bride

Miss Maude Mellor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor, of O'Neill, and Neil E. Hipke, son of Mrs. Roy Hipke, of Johnstown, were united in marriage on Sunday, December 5, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Mellor. The single-ring ceremony was performed at 2 p. m. with Rev. V. R. Bell officiating.

The bride was attired in a pink satin gown accented with lace from her mother's wedding gown. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Mary Steele, of Ainsworth, acted as bridesmaid. Her gown was of blue taffeta and her bouquet was of white carnations.

The bridegroom wore a grey business suit. His attendant, John Hipke, wore a brown business suit. Both wore white carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Mellor, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Hipke, mother of the bridegroom, were attired in blue street length dresses, accented by autumn corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held for about 50 guests. The centerpiece for the table was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, baked by Mrs. Leonard Chaffin, sister of the bride.

For her going away ensemble the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories.

Both families have lived near Atkinson for many years.

Skating Club Formed

Recently Charles Chambers, jr., owner of the O'Neill Roldrome, formed a club for skaters between 16- and 25-years-old.

After skating Mr. Chambers called the meeting to order and officers were elected. They are: Bud Moler, president; Quentin Cavanaugh, vice-president; Joanne Simonson, secretary, and Eileen Stanton, treasurer.

The following committees were appointed: Membership—Dale Nissen (chairman), Robert Eby, Margaret Hynes and Delores DeBolt; entertainment and refreshment—Robert Asher (chairman), Gordon Elkins, Lavonne Riley, Donna Davis, Donna McElvain and Jerome Gallagher; transportation—Richard Farrier, Donald Gibson and James Gallagher.

The second meeting was held Tuesday, November 3. Name for the club was decided, "The Comets." Grey and red were chosen as club colors and the members plan to get uniforms.

Age limits have been changed. Anyone within four months of being 15-years-old may enter. Next club meeting will be held Monday, December 13. —By Marilyn Fritton, reporter, and Lavonne Riley, assistant reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Are Winners At Sullivan's—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan were hosts to the Sunday night Pinochle club. Mrs. D. N. Loy won high for the ladies; Mr. Loy won high honors for the men; Mrs. Ray Laurence won low for the ladies; Robert Cook won low for the men; Robert Shulz won traveling prize.
