

Kicked in Face by Horse at McLaughlin's Barn, John Harvey Is Minus Several Teeth

54 YEARS AGO

Mr. Tyrell, a Lincoln attorney, was in O'Neill several days last week looking up some lands under the Elkhorn irrigation canal in which the contemplation of buying an interest. Mr. Tyrell is enthusiastic about irrigation. The ability to get water for the land is what led him to entertain a proposition to become a Holt county landowner. He informed the writer that Lincoln men have irrigated lands in the southwestern part of the state and made lots of money on alfalfa last year. The Frontier hopes to be able to say this of Holt county farmers next fall.

E. P. Hicks, of this city, took the passenger for Waterloo, Ia., this morning, where he went to attend the funeral of his father, William Hicks, of that city. The deceased was a native of England, and almost a centenarian, having attained the unusual age of 98 years.

John Harvey was kicked in the face by a horse at McLaughlin's barn last Tuesday evening, and in consequence thereof is now minus several teeth. Just how it happened Mr. Harvey is not prepared to say. He was found lying unconscious upon the floor of the barn, and when he regained consciousness was unable to say just what misfortune had overtaken him. He was treated by Dr. Gilligan and at this writing is almost recovered.

Ernst Adams, who has spent the past eight months in Arizona, arrived in the city Friday night and will remain a couple of weeks looking after some business matters. He was living 60 miles from a railroad and did not get the telegram announcing his mother's death until after the funeral.

Jesse Mellor left O'Neill on Wednesday morning for Stuttgart, Ark., where he has purchased a half interest in the general merchandising establishment of D. L. Kramer. He has disposed of his business interests here and expects to make his future home among the flowers of the South. Jesse is a young man of business and social ability, and will make himself felt in Stuttgart. He will be missed in O'Neill, where he leaves many kinds of friends.

The county board continues in session "as a committee of the whole" with O. F. Biglin in the chair. The work of checking up the officers is long and arduous and the members of the board as well as the officers whose records are being expeted will feel a relief when it is over. The board has been in session since mid-January and their work is nearing a close.

The Frontier is becoming somewhat cramped for room where to dispense the news. O'Neill businessmen are making heavy demands on our space and it may be necessary to enlarge the size of our paper. The Frontier has appeared in its present form for many years and if any change is made it will be to enlarge so as to better serve the readers and accomodate advertisers.

Patrick Brennan received a telephone message Monday from South Omaha that his son, Mike, was very sick at Hot Springs, Ark., where he had gone from South Omaha about a week previous, at the direction of his doctor. Mr. Brennan and his son, James, went to South Omaha on Tuesday's early morning train, James expecting to go to Hot Springs.

R. W. McGinnis, general passenger agent of the North Western at Lincoln, was in town the first of the week. Mr. McGinnis was up looking after his creamery business and real estate interests at Amelia. He made arrangements to do some fencing on his extensive range in that section while here.

The men with municipal political bees in their caps will need to get in their work within a few weeks. April 5 we have another city election. At the present writing there is no general clamor for the honors to be bestowed on that day, although it is said the field is not without those who are quietly waiting for the lightning to strike.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Irish Lassies Troop 1 held its meeting at St. Mary's academy, Tuesday, February 22, was "Thinking Day", so we had flag drill and salute. Sixteen members were present. Carolyn Wilson drew the lucky number.

We received a letter from a girl in Landau, Germany, who had received one of the kits we sent last January. The Scouts each wrote a note to her.

The troop is making up five kits this week. We are adopting two "shut-ins" to remember each week. Our "shut-in" is a six-year-old boy, who is a polio patient at Hot Springs. The third patrol will meet at Hickey's today (Thursday). The second patrol will meet Friday.

Rita Jilg and Jeanne Hickey are two new Scouts. They were their second meeting. Deloris Jilg received a gift from Mrs. Thomas Greene for collecting the most money in the March of Dimes. The girls who helped received a treat also.

Purple Pansies Honor Troop Member—

Monday Girl Scout Troop number 2 honored Nan Rickly at a farewell party. Following their regular meeting at the public school, the group of 15 girls posed for snapshots. Mrs. Harold Lindberg, assistant leader, took the pictures. She accompanied the group to the M & M cafe where refreshments were served in the Blue room. Mrs. F. M. Brennan, troop committee chairman, also attended.

The girls presented their sister member with a farewell gift. The highlight of the business meeting was the receipt of a letter from Landau, Germany. Last January, 1948, the O'Neill Girl Scouts sent clothing kits abroad under the direction of International Girl Scouts. One grateful girl wrote a letter of appreciation to the troops for a package. It reads, translated:

St. Konradsheim, Landau in der Pfalz, Germany.

Dear Friends:
On January 26 I received your dear package. I rejoice greatly over this. The clothes and other things I can use very nicely. I am living in a home. We are 28 children and three Sisters. We have not much money and therefore we rejoice over the package, and thank you most heartily and wish you very good.

The picture on the front of the letter is our home. I like it here. The school is also in this home, and we also like to work in the home. Perhaps I could hear from you again, it would make me very happy. Greetings to all your dear parents.

Loving thanks and greetings, ANNELESE MENDEL.

Mrs. Dale Buckmaster went to Norfolk Monday on business.
