OUT OLD NEBRASKA

Forty-Niners a Colorful Group of Emigrants—

This year marks the centennial of the California gold rush, one of the most fantastic movements of men in all history, and one which saw thousands of Americans make their way across Nebraska in search of riches in the Golden West.

Gold was discovered at Sutter's fort on January 24, 1848.
 The earliest reports of the discovery were received dubiously in the East, but when on December 5, 1848, President James K. Polk included the news in his message to Congress, the country was electrified with excitement.

During the month of January, more than half a hundred ships cleared eastern ports for California. In February more than a hundred departed for the same destination. The gold fever spread to all parts of the world, and emigrants from Europe and Asia poured into California all during 1849.

By early Spring the overland emigration was underway, and the once empty valley of the Platte was filled with countless caravans of eager fortune-hunters making their way westward. Estimates as to the exact number vary all the way from 20 to 30 thousand.
 In general, the Forty-Niners followed the earlier Oregon Trail through most of Nebraska. Starting from Independence, Mo., they entered along the Little Blue, following that stream northwest across the state. The trail joined the Platte River east of Kearney (established just the year before). Once past the fort, the eager travelers followed the Platte to the junction of the north and south forks and then went down the South Platte to one of two "California Crossings." The lower crossing was near Big Spring and the upper near Julesburg.

Those who took the lower crossing had to negotiate Ash Hollow, one of the toughest spots on the entire trail. From the upper crossing the trail ascended Lodgepole Creek. Both trails joined just east of Chimney Rock, whence they went along the North Platte past Scotts Bluff to Ft. Laramie and beyond.

The Forty-Niners were as colorful a group of emigrants as ever went through Nebraska. Many of them kept diaries. Still more wrote eger —and at times, homesick—letters to family and friends in the East. From these documents, large numbers of which have been published, we have a first-hand account of life in Nebraska just a century ago.
