Season's Largest Run Sells Readily at Stronger Prices

Over 2,000 Head Sold at Atkinson Tuesday; 600-pound yearling steers sell up to $26.85 a hundred; market fully 25 to 35 cents up with many new season's highs on all classes.

The heaviest run of cattle since last November was sold at the Atkinson Livestock Market Tuesday. With over 2,000 head of cattle on sale, quality of which was easily the best of the year, buyers were present in numbers from five states, to bid on them.

Competition was keen and with the market active and moving along at a rapid rate selling was completed by 9:30 p. m.

Many straight carloads were sold. A 245-head consignment from the Bob Clifford ranch were the class of the auction, 140 head of yearling steers carrying his brand sold at prices in carload lots ranging from $25.60 to $26.85 a hundred setting new season's highs for the current year.

A 58-head consignment of yearling heifers reached $26.25 a hundred. All quality yearling steers sold in a price range of $24.50 to $26 a hundred, while medium to good kinds cleared at $22 to $24. Yearling heifers sold mostly between $23.50 and $25 a hundred. Two-year-old heifers from $21 to $23 a hundred, and two-year-old steers at $23.50 to $24.50 a hundred.

Demand was broad for breeding stock at prices from $165 to $200 a head for cows. Cannors, cutters, bulls and butcher cattle looked 50 cents up for the week. A consignment of 13 registered Hereford breeding bulls from the Dwight Marts herd, at Bone-steel, S. D., averaged $355 a head. The hog run was light with but 300 on sale. Top butchers reached $21.50 with the bulk at $20.50 to $21.40 a hundred. Sows from $15.00 to $16.75 a hundred.

Next auction Tuesday, March 22. A special consignment of 25 registered Hereford bulls from the George Rowse & Sons herd will be sold at this sale. adv 45c
