

GRUBB FUNERAL HELD SUNDAY

Relatives Come from Distance to Attend Rites at Chambers

CHAMBERS — Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 2 p. m. for Mrs. H. Wade Grubb, 76, who died Tuesday, March 15. Rev. Ward Smith officiated. A quartette, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Leo T. Adams, Robert Turner and Mrs. Letha Cooke, sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Sometime We'll Understand." Mrs. Robert Adams at the piano accompanied the quartette. Pallbearers were: William Turner, Harlan Deirking, Charles Grimes, Clair Grimes, Glen Adams and Glen Taylor. Those in charge of flowers were: Mrs. C. E. Tibbets, Mrs. J. W. Walter, Mrs. Clair Grimes and Mrs. Glen Adams. Gertrude Lenore Davis was born at Grainger, Mo., August 5, 1872.

At 16 years of age, she was united in marriage to Harvey Wade Grubb on March 9, 1888, at Centerville, Ia. To this union nine children were born. Two preceded her in death — Francis Bolivar and Esther Faye.

Their early married life was spent at Brimson, Mo. They came to Nebraska in the Spring of 1899. A year later her parents and family followed in a covered wagon. Her father was a Methodist minister and taught school and held services in his sod home.

Survivors include: Widower, Daughters—Mrs. Seth (Grace) Cooper, of Chambers; Mrs. Clarence N. (Cora) Wyant, of Chambers; Mrs. William (Elizabeth) Reninger, of Chambers; Mrs. Ned (Florence) Frady, of Corona, Calif.; Mrs. Roland R. (Gladys) Jackson, of Kent, Wash. Sons — Charles M. Grubb, of McGill, Nev., and Donald Grubb, of Beaver, Wash.; five sisters; one brother; 12 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Among the relatives and friends from away attending the funeral were: Norman Reninger, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Frady, of Corona, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grubb and family, of McGill, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Grubb and daughter, Fern, of Dubois, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reninger and Mr. and Mrs. Golden Reninger, of Sioux City; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brown, of Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowers, of Norfolk.

Beauticians Meet

A meeting of unit six of the National Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists' association was held Wednesday, March 16, at the O'Neill beauty shop. Those present were: Leola Peterson, Sylvia Garnall, Ann Brooke, all of Atkinson, and Ann Asher, Noreen Davidson, Margaret Clauson, Elma Evans, Melina Martin and Donna Humpal, all of O'Neill.

Cattle Values Present Uneven Price Pattern

All cows and butcher cattle 25 and more higher, but fleshier feeder cattle 50 cents lower; 27 Rowse bulls average $325 a head in Tuesday's auction at Atkinson.

Unevenly higher prices were general on all classes of cows and butcher cattle at Tuesday's auction at Atkinson. Advances generally measured 25 to 50 cents from a week ago. Other than the lightweight stockers, replacement cattle did not fare so well and looked as much as 50 cents lower from last week's best prices.

With nearly 1,400 cattle on sale, selections were good for the buyers. Choice steer calves in load lots brought up to $27-35 while yearling steers from 650- to 750-pounds sold mostly between $24.50 and $26 a hundredweight. Most price decline was on feeders selling upward from $24. These looked a full half dollar lower. Lightweight heifer calves ruled fully steady at $24 to $25.50 a hundred and quality considered breeding cows were $5 a head higher at $170 to $195 a head. Medium quality stockers were steady and in active demand at $21.50 to $23 a hundred.

A consignment of 27 registered Hereford bulls from the A. H. Rowse & Sons herd sold for an average of $325 a head.

The hog run was light due to bad road conditions, with less than 200 head on offer. Top butchers cleared between $20-50 and $21 a hundred. Heavier weights from $19.50 to $20 and sows from $16 to $17 a hundred. Next auction will be Tuesday, March 29. adv 46c

Teen Tattler

'Now That Spring Is a Thing of Present Don't Let Fever Get You Down'

By PAT BRENNAN

Hi, teeners! One of the many questions I have been asked this week is "Why isn't there any St. Mary's band in the music contest this year?"

Well, I believe I've got the right answer, and what I have to say concerning this includes both schools. Your school is what you make it.

Pat Brennan

Give your teacher a hand. Make the rest of the school year seem short for your teacher as well as for yourself. Give your school paper a new slant on news.

Make your school a part of the community. Prepare yourself for your future job. Make the most of yourself by putting your all into the advantages offered in the O'Neill schools. There is an activity offered in every line. What ever activity you enjoy, work at it, get others interested in it, too. Your school is what you make it.

Mareen Mahony, freshman, and George Shoemaker, a fourth grader, were the queen and king of the Irish fair.

But now that St. Patrick's day of 1949 is a thing of the past and Spring is a thing of the present, let's not let this "Spring fever" get us down, let's work all the harder.

The dramatic elimination on March 15 turned out very well with the O'Neill public school's presentation of "His First Dress Suit" getting a "superior" and St. Mary's play, "Dust of the Road", getting an "excellent" rating. Both of these plays will go to Atkinson to the dramatic contest. Marie Guthmiller was chosen as the best actress. Others who qualified for their dramatic reading were Alice Scofield, Phyllis Seger, Pat Cain, Ila Carter, Dottie Iler and Stanley Price, Nice going, teeners!

The music elimination on March 14 was a rather bad day for the instrumentals, but the vocals turned out rather good. There was one entry eliminated and that one was from the public school.

It seems that the most popular fad right now is the painting of glasses, so don't be surprised to see the same girl, but different glasses. How's it done? Fingernail polish. See you around.
