Stuart Sends Truck Delegation to Lincoln

STUART—The Community club was represented in Lincoln Tuesday, March 22, when a formal protest was made to Gov. Val Peterson against weight restrictions imposed on trucks.

The Stuart delegation included Bruce Shald, Fritz Kohle and Gib Shald.

The Stuart delegates joined other North Nebraskans, mostly truck owners and operators, in protesting the weight limits which were devised to "preserve the highways."

These weight limits, put into effect in mid-March, virtually stopped shipments of fuel oil, gasoline, livestock, produce, dairy products, feed, hay and gravel in the Stuart region.
