

Atkinson Choral Groups to Valentine

ATKINSON— Valentine will be host to the North-Central Nebraska conference music contest on Friday, April 1. About 300 students plan to participate.

Under the direction of Prof. David Foltz, head of the music department of the University of Nebraska, chorus groups will have the opportunity to rehearse their songs. Mr. Foltz will blend these voices into one chorus for the concert to be presented at 7:30 (MST) in the city auditorium at Valentine.

The mixed chorus groups from Atkinson high school are attending, including 48 students.

Other Atkinson News

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koldschmidt have purchased the property known as the Ida Alfs property, one-half mile North of Atkinson. They plan to move there soon. William Siebert is the tenant at this time.

The new neon sign purchased by the American Legion and auxiliary has been installed. It is a real addition to Atkinson's growing "bright lights" district.

Don Blair has a class of student fliers who are anxious for more flying days. They are Roy "Babe" Mack, Don Parsons, Elvin White and Tom Maring, Jr.

Mrs. Joe Stoeker and son, Neal, were home over the weekend from Valentine. She is teaching school near there this year. Because of bad roads they planned to return by air.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Burgess and son, Lloyd, and daughters, Darlene and Norma, were in Norfolk Saturday on business.

Ned Shaw, of Chadron, brought his wife and children, Linda and Judy, to Atkinson Saturday, March 19, for a visit with Mrs. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Morgan. Lane Griffin accompanied Ned back to Chadron for a short visit. Mrs. Shaw and the children are remaining here for a longer visit.

Dorothy Lou Havronek stayed with her grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy Barrett, from Friday until Sunday while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Havronek, of O'Neill, attended the Ice Capades in Omaha.

Mrs. Ralph Beckwith, Mrs. Rex Beckwith and Mrs. Arthur Harley visited relatives in Norfolk over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Marr and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beck were in Omaha and Norfolk this week on business. While there they attended the Ice Capades.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw came from Lincoln Saturday. They were accompanied by Jack's father, Harvey S. Shaw, who had been visiting in Lincoln the last two weeks and Mrs. Shaw's brother, Charles Apgar, and wife, also of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralton Jarvis and daughter, Joan, were in Norfolk Saturday.

Miss Jane Chace returned to her classes at Northwestern University in Chicago, Ill., on Saturday after spending Spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvon Chace, and brother, Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kensemeyer have moved to their property in Atkinson purchased recently from Joe Stoeker. Mr. and Mrs. Haskins West will occupy the upstairs apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Davis are the new owners of the restaurant sold recently by John Miskimins. They opened for business Monday morning.

Maude Shaw, of Joliet, Ill., is visiting her brother, Harvey Shaw, and family and nephews, Frank Brady, of Atkinson, and Dr. Richard Brady, of Ainsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Humphrey went to Sioux City on Monday. Mr. Humphrey planned to attend an electrical demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hicker-son went to Sioux City Monday, March 21. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ed Slaymaker, Mrs. Ethel Mohr and daughter, Mrs. Melvin Andrews. Mrs. Mohr returned to Sioux City Monday for medical treatment.

Guests at the Fred Barnes home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ace Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnes and little daughter, also Mrs. Kenneth Oetter and son.

Paul James spent the weekend at his ranch home in the South country. He came to Atkinson Monday with Vic Allen, who went on to Norfolk on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller and son, Richard, of Seattle, Wash., are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. C. McKay. They arrived here on Friday. Marvin Miller and his family, of O'Neill, a brother of Mrs. McKay, spent Sunday at the McKay home. Mr. Miller, sr., is also a brother of A. G. Miller, of Atkinson.

Mrs. Vera Kaplan returned Tuesday, March 22, from Los Angeles, Calif. where she had spent the Winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Andrews. Mr. Andrews is "very ill" and is only a "little improved" at this time.

BROTHER DIES
AMELIA — Guy Blake received word that his brother, Ed Blake, who was in a Bassett hospital, died last week.

There's Much Ado About This

Go gay, go gala this Spring in our delectable fashions . . . all conspiring to make you prettier than ever this season!

EASTER

As Seen in GLAMOUR . . . 64.95

Swansdown

uses buttons to good advantage

Tantalizing

Tantalizing tribute to the bud 'n' blossom season is this aristocrat of braids by Gage Imported Swiss Saturo straw at its finest with just the perfect touch of taffeta gives you the cleverest variation of the cloche your hair-do ever honored...

8.95

A DREAM COME TRUE

In this exciting JEAN LANG ORIGINAL . . . doubly interesting back and front. With highlights of shimmering taffeta at the stand-up collar, hips and back bow. In Masterpiece sheer. Sizes 10 to 16.

29⁹⁵

New accent for narrow waistlines, rounded hips! Swansdown defines your silhouette with buttons—adds a neatly notched collar for interest. In a pure worsted sheen by Miron. Sizes 10 to 18. $79.95

your suit dress, cut of drama

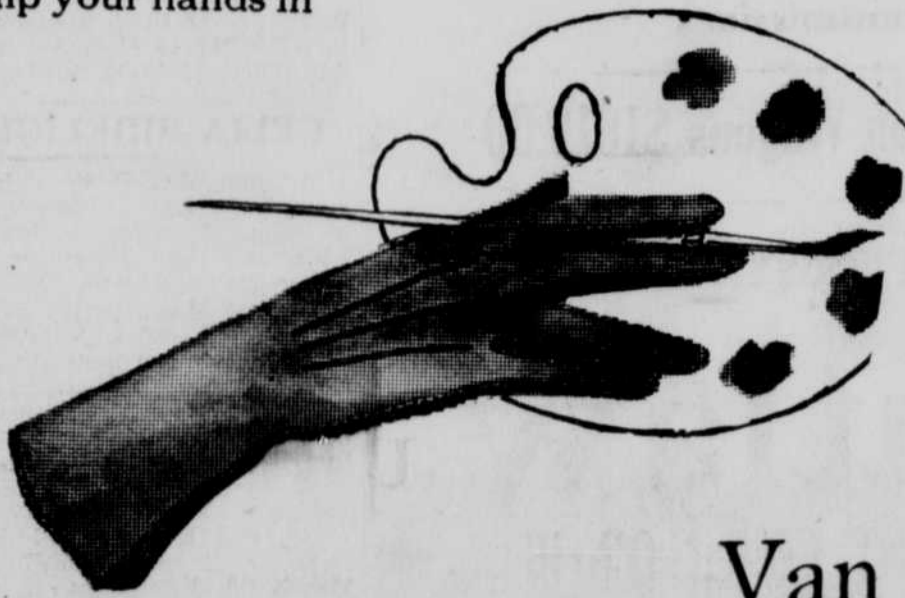

. . . the bold notched lapels and emphatic button treatment, both pointed up by the turn-back jacket that cuts away to rippling back softness. Rayon faille in blue, rose, black or navy. Sizes 10 to 20.

$29.95

PAINTER'S PALETTE COLORS

Slip your hands in

It's color, color, color—for every Spring costume. A painter's palette of colors in those famous whipstitched Amersuede gloves by RAALTE. They're sueded double-woven rayon, so expensive looking, so luxuriously feeling, so wonderfully washable — and so thriftily priced!

Van Raalte

Amersuede Gloves . . . $1.50

The Shop of Finer Fashions
The Apparel Shop
O'NEILL, NEBRASKA