Terwilligers Plan Voyage to Europe

CELIA — Mr. and Mrs. Lee Terwilliger and son, Perry, were O'Neill visitors Wednesday, April 13. While there they made application for passports for a trip to Germany first week in September.

All three of them are going to Germany aboard either the Queen Mary or Queen Elizabeth. These two vessels are the largest in the world. Mrs. Terwilliger was born in Germany and left there in 1923.

They will land at Cherbourg, France, and go by rail through Paris to Hamburg, Germany, where the Terwilligers will visit her 83-year-old mother, whom Mrs. Terwilliger hasn't seen for 26 years. She has a brother and three sisters in Germany to visit as well as other relatives and friends. They will be there one month.

They will go by auto to New York City where they will visit a sister of Mrs. Terwilliger's and sail from New York harbor. Hamburg is in the British zone of occupation. They are each allowed 20 cubic feet of luggage. Round trip by boat will cost $330 each and will take 4½ days to make the voyage each way.
