

Welcome to O'Neill, Bob Sullivan; Assurance of Orchestra for May 6

By PAT BRENNAN

Hi, all you talented teenagers! Everyone's talking about what splendid modeling ability you showed at the rural women's recognition day luncheon Wednesday! The music furnished by the girls' sextets from both schools was very good indeed, and was enjoyed by everyone present.

The 14 teens who went to the fine arts festival in Lincoln last weekend sure had a good time, and made a very good showing of their various talents.

Pat Brennan

Joan Simonson and Bud Moler along with Marilyn Fritton and Chuck Fox seemed to be having a wonderful time at the Easter dance at Long Pine. Bob Sullivan, new freshman at the "Pub", has joined us. Welcome to the big city of O'Neill, Bob! (Or have you been welcomed already?) There's a popularity contest being slated at the McCrary Jewelry. Only those are eligible to enter who are to be graduated this year (1949) from

Auxiliary in Midst of a Busy Week

The regular meeting of Simonson Unit 93 of the American Legion auxiliary will be held at the Legion auditorium on Wednesday, May 4. Final plans will be discussed and arrangements made for Poppy day which is to be held on May 28.

Reports will be heard on the decisions of the judges in the Americanism essay contest. Sixteen entries have been submitted for judging. Prizes will be awarded in the carpet rag and membership contests.

A report of acceptance has been received from department headquarters for girls' state entrants from Simonson post. Miss Beverly Boelter, a junior of the O'Neill high school, will represent the auxiliary at girls' state the first week in June.

The auxiliary is in the midst of a busy week. On Wednesday the members served a noon luncheon for the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce, honoring the Rural Homemakers of an eight-county area; tonight (Thursday) they will serve a dinner for members of Highway 281 Association; on Monday, May 2, the officers will go to Stuart to assist the Stuart unit with initiation of new members; and on Tuesday, they will serve a banquet for a group of Holt county Rural Youth; and Wednesday, May 4, will be their regular meeting.

The attendance award will be $25 at this meeting. Lunch will be served at the close of the business session.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Klingler, of Bonparte, Ia., spent the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klingler. Carl Klingler is Albert's nephew.
