Kellar Presbyterian Aid Meets — The Kellar Presbyterian Aid held an afternoon meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young on Wednesday, May 11. There were 15 members and five visitors present.

The meeting opened with group singing after which "The Lord's Prayer" was repeated. The president, Mrs. Young, read the scripture lesson.

A box of used clothing was prepared to be sent to an orphan's home in Omaha. It was also planned to take the canned goods, which have been collected during the winter to the Smith store to be made ready for shipment to the home.

No time or place for the next meeting was decided upon so that will be announced later. The meeting closed by repeating a verse from the Bible. A lunch was served by the hostess after the meeting adjourned.

CARDS OF THANKS

I WISH to express my thanks for the flowers, cards and many acts of kindness shown me during my recent illness. CHARLES FOX 2p

WE WISH to thank everyone for their kind expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received in our recent bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remter and Mary Janice, Mrs. Mary Langan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Remter. 2p

WE WISH to express our sincere gratitude to our many neighbors, friends and relatives who helped pick and shell our corn following the long illness and death of our darling little daughter and sister. We also thank the ladies of the community who furnished the food and helped serve the dinner and lunch to the men and boys. May God reward you. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remter and Mary Janice. 2p

I WISH to take this opportunity to thank those who so kindly remembered me with cards, letters and flowers during my recent stay in the hospital. MRS. R. H. SHRINER. 2c

WE WISH to express our thanks an appreciation to all our friends and relatives for the lovely flowers, cards, food and their many acts of kindness shown us in the loss of our dear son and brother. A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is still, A vacant chair is in our home which never can be filled. THE JAMES P. BOYLE family and relatives. 2-50p

Mrs. Robertson Prepares History

CHAMBERS — The Valley Center extension club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Farrier on Friday, May 13, with an attendance of 14 members and one visitor, Mrs. Harry Collins, of Denver, Colo.

The lesson, "His, Hers, and Theirs," regarding the community property law, was presented by Mrs. Lloyd Glead. It was an interesting lesson with plenty of food for thought, members said.

The club history, written by Mrs. C. V. Robertson, was read by Mrs. Kenneth Adams. The club still has four charter members—Mrs. Lloyd Glead, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, Mrs. C. V. Robertson and Mrs. H. C. Walter.

The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter. An interesting paper on using our prized possessions was given by Mrs. Clyde Kiltz.

Lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Glee Grimeson June 1. The lesson will be on "Lawns," to be presented by Mrs. C. V. Robertson.

Extension Club Adopts Home — ATKINSON — The Atkinson extension club voted to adopt Mother Jewel's home at York as its children's home for the year.

Several extension clubs have been doing this and it is intended that in this way aid will be better distributed.

The Atkinson club also sent a contribution to the fund which is to pay for the course of a Chinese girl who is attending school in the United States.
