

Inman Consolidated School Closes May 20

INMAN—The Inman consolidated school closed Friday with the annual community picnic at noon. A ball game and other sports were enjoyed during the afternoon.

The teachers will spend the summer in various places. Supt. Ralph Gray, in Lincoln; Mrs.

ON THE RIGHT TRACK

What is more thrilling than to watch a star sprinter flashing toward the tape—speed and form developed to the utmost!

He is successful because of careful training and expert coaching. Coaches teach their athletes the latest and most approved ways of performing their specialty, including staying in the proper lane.

Your tavern owner, too, is trained to do his job properly and to stay on the right track. The Nebraska Division, United States Brewers Foundation, serves as an efficient coach, supplying information as to the most approved methods of operation. As the result, he is an even better tavern operator . . . and even better citizen.
