

150 Attend 4-H Demonstrations

One hundred and fifty Holt and Boyd county 4-H boys and girls attended a practice judging and home economics session here Tuesday, June 14.

The girls were given pointers on home economics, the judging of foods and clothing and home making, by Miss Alegra Wilken, of Lincoln, assistant Nebraska 4-H leader and clothing specialist.

Assisting Miss Wilken were five girls from Lincoln. They were: Eunice Jensen, Maurine Steyer, Mary Louise Barunzel, Bonnie Stewart and Elaine Quigly.

The boys spent the day going to nearby farms judging livestock.

Cattle was judged at the Harry Ressel place; saddle horses at the O'Neill sale barn; hogs and dairy cattle at the Lloyd Gibson place and hogs and stocker feeder calves at the Felix Hendrix farm.

University of Nebraska personnel attending the one-day session were K. C. Fouts, extension animal husbandryman, and Arthur Strumpler, livestock student.

District 4-H club camp will be held June 20-22 at Long Pine with nine counties being represented. County Agent A. Neil Dawes has announced.

Holt county delegation will leave the courthouse at 7:45 a. m. on Monday, June 20, by truck and will pick up at Emmet, Atkinson and Stuart on the way to Long Pine.

Four-H'ers planning to attend the camp and who have not made application, are urged to do so at once or bring the application with them on the departure date.

Applications received to date total 30. Last year 100 attended the summer camp.

Another activity today (Thursday) will be the women's extension club picnic with the Scott community acting as host to the other Holt county women's extensions clubs at Ford's park in the Northwest section of O'Neill.

The picnic is mainly a social event for the get-together of all of the Holt county extension clubs.

On June 29 the county 4-H'ers demonstration day will be held in the assembly room of the county court house.

Demonstration is the explanation of how to do a particular project. It is all part of the 4-H training, Dawes said.

Sally Ann McCage Receives Burns

Sally Ann McCage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. McCage, of O'Neill, is in St. Joseph's hospital at Sioux City being treated for third degree burns she received when her dress caught fire last Thursday, June 9.

She was taken to Sioux City Friday, June 10.

A playmate and Sally Ann had finished making mud cakes when they were going to "barbecue" them.

The playmate had the matches to light a fire. It was the first time the playmate had ever struck a match. Upon lighting it, it startled the playmate so that he threw the match away, not looking where Sally Ann was standing. The match lit on Sally Ann's dress and immediately burst into flames.

Her screams brought her mother from the house, who extinguished the blaze by smothering the flames in her hands.

The little girl received third degree burns on the left side of her body, from the hip to the knee. Doctors said she would be hospitalized for 10 days to two weeks and that she was getting along "fine."
