Bosn-Blomstrom Nuptials Said

A nuptial mass highlighted the ceremony when Miss Dorothy J. Bosn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bosn, exchanged marriage vows with Paul L. Blomstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blomstrom, of Winner, S. D., on Monday, June 13, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill. Rt. Rev. J. G. McNamara officiated at the eight o'clock single-ring ceremony.

Miss Nancy Beha and Dan DeBacker sang the wedding music.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Rosalind Bosn. Mrs. Lloyd Blomstrom, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a colonial style gown of white satin and chiffon lace. The deep yoke of net was accented by two rows of lace ruffles, and long sleeves which tapered to points over her hands. The fitted bodice complemented her full skirt which gathered softly about the hipline with the front of satin and a lace peplum, which hooped in repeated tiers to the floor. The three-yard train, edged in chiffon lace, was a continuation of the first lace tier and tapered the length of the gown. Her finger-tip veil, held in place by a beaded tiara, was fashioned of white net and edged in lace. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies and a sterling jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom and his attendant, Lloyd Blomstrom, his brother, and Ray Bosn, brother of the bride, were attired in brown business suits. Their boutonnières were of white carnations. James Hart, of O'Neill, and Harold Volz, of Winner, S. D., were ushers.

Mrs. Simon Bosn, mother of the bride, wore a dressmaker's suit of blue gabardine. Mrs. Blomstrom, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a flowered print street dress. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party at their immediate families at Slat's cafe.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents from 12 until 2 p. m.

Mrs. Blomstrom is a graduate of Dwight Assumption academy in David City, and is a graduate of St. Elizabeth's school of nursing in Lincoln. She spent two years serving with the Army Nurse Corps in Berlin.

Mr. Blomstrom is a graduate of Winner high school. He served overseas with the armed forces in Europe and is now engaged in business in Winner.
