ATKINSON — Miss Jean Scott, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Scott, and Gene Livingston, second son of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Livingston, were married Sunday, June 19, at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian church at Atkinson.

Rev. Orin C. Graff, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before a background consisting of large baskets of pink-and-white peonies. Shasta daisies on either side formed the path down which the bride, bridegroom, and their attendants advanced to the altar.

The bride, preceded by her attendants, came down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her organ dress was made with a full, tiered skirt and fitted bodice. Her veil was of white net, shoulder length, and her bouquet was of white carnations.

Her maid-of-honor, Miss Maxine Stefanski, of Lincoln, was dressed in blue organza with matching head dress. The other attendants, Miss Doris Keyes, of Ainsworth, and Mrs. Lorne Hickok, of Atkinson, were dressed in yellow organza with matching head pieces.

The bridegroom was dressed in a light grey suit and he wore a white carnation boutonniere. He was attended by his brother, Zane, who was bestman. Henry Warren and Joe Livingston, also a brother of the bridegroom, served as ushers. They all wore white carnation boutonnières.

Relatives and friends were entertained at a reception held in the serving room of the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Roy Mack had charge of the guest book. The serving table was centered with the bride's cake. Crystal vases on either side contained shaded pink-and-white roses. Silver embossed napkins completed the table appointments.

Mrs. Robert Friedrich, of Omaha, and Mrs. James Kirkland, of Atkinson, poured.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Feuerhelm and children, of Merrill, Ia.; Mrs. Roy Morse and son, of Vermillion, S. D.; Leona Livingston and Larry Clark, of Des Moines; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Scott and daughters, of Butte; Donald Scott, of Lincoln; Doris Keyes, of Ainsworth; Mrs. Robert Friedrich, of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Speits, of Grand Island.
