Connie Lu Williams a June Bride

Miss Connie Lu Williams, daughter of Mrs. Christine Williams, was united in marriage on Saturday to Harold Eugene McNally, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McNally, of Ainsworth, at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Ralph Gerber officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Gerber played "I Love You Truly" and the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Orville Greenfield, of Hastings.

She appeared in a pink embroidered cotton street-length dress made of broadcloth. She wore a matching hat. Miss Williams carried a white Bible with white carnations and pink ribbons with streamers of white ribbons.

Miss Elaine Ressel, of Lincoln, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue organdy dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and red roses.

The bridegroom was attired in a brown gabardine suit.

Gene Porter served as best man. He wore a tan gabardine suit. Mr. McNally and Mr. Porter wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore a lavender beamburg dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and stephanitis.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

Mrs. McNally is a graduate of Lincoln high school. Mr. McNally graduated from Johnstown high school.

After the reception, the young couple left on a wedding trip. They will make their home in Ainsworth.

Fire Damages

Orchard Store—

ORCHARD—A fire at the Klusman shoe and harness shop resulted in several thousand dollars damage to the shop and adjoining buildings early Sunday morning.

The flames apparently starting in a waste paper basket, were noticed at 12:30 p. m. by Gerald Maple, proprietor of the Gamble store, who had just closed the store and was getting into his car. The flicker of flames were seen by Maple through the east window of the shoe store.

Maple entered the building attempting to put out the fire with a fire extinguisher, but was unable to do so. He called across the street to a filling station that turned in the alarm.

Firemen from Ewing, Clearwater and Brunswick helped bring the fire under control.

Darrel and Jerry Dexter returned from Amelia after having spent two weeks with the Raymond Blys.

OVER THE WAVES ... Mrs. Zetta Hills, 52, has accepted a challenge from another cycling enthusiast to race across the English Channel on bicycles equipped with floats, from Calais to Dover. Mrs. Hills says she has made several such aquacycle trips in the past, once covering the distance in 16½ hours.
