the dozen venturesome men 100 carloads of eggs, annually, who built it. Then a trading post for the settlers and outload, 30 dozen to the carload, 30 dozen to the case, lying booted and belted cattlemen. Another step in the dred carloads make 21,600,000 fast moving drama on the making 18,000 dozen or 210,000 great prairieland stage was the eggs from the O'Neill territory coming cultural benefits of shipped out by one concern. schools and newspapers, the alone. subduing influence of courts and churches and transcending it all came the civilizing force of the transition from dreary bachelor abodes to home and when a human foot first crushed a prairie rose on the unspoiled sod, where today stretches the gray concrete of wide, paved streets of the O'Neill of this generation—have marked periods of growth, unsung bitterness of political turmoil, and hard-bitten seasons of threatened famine.

buy annually about 100,000 pounds of butterfat from the owners of dairy cows in this community. The factory converts this into pound packages of butter and last year shipped 1,500,000 pounds of butter from the O'Neill plant.

The Corkle industries of O'Neill probably produced more chicks, and haby turks then of threatened famine.

Out of the tears and laughter of the years, the planning and toil of men and women inspired with faith in a vision, here lies a city four square, more than a mile each way, more than a mile each way, cottages and beautiful homes in a setting of lush verdure, shade and ornamental trees; more than a mile of stores and business places lining both sides of the streets where you can boy anything from a needle to the latest model car, a home produced egg or the wonders from the tropic, a nail or the latest thing in home apor the latest thing in home appliances, a fence post or a house, a cowboy saddle or a marvel in harvesting machines.

Here are markets for livestock, poultry, dairy products, grain, hay or the fruits of the garden patch. schools and Six churches, three or four thousand people — from the high-geared go-getter to the placid street loaier, from the highly technical trained professional to the strong man with the shovel, from the efficient housemaid to the retired lady of leisure, from the hard-bitten gent and sophisticated amazon to the sweet little golden haired youngsters.

The valuation for tax assessment made on property in Assessed values theoretically O'Neill in 1948 was $1,709,094. are a third less than sale values, and in many instances are even much less.

Assets of the two O'Neill banks are listed at $6,166,000 and cash on deposit $5,775,000.

Ten years ago the Tri-State poultry packing plant dressed 1,000 chickens a day and had 60 employees. At present, during the poultry packing season, from three to four thousand chickens a day are prepared for packing and shipping. The sunual output of poultry for shipment amounts to 40 cars of chickens and 30 cars of turshipment amounts to 40 cars of chickens and 30 cars of turkeys, 30,000 pounds of each to the carload. There is being raised this year on the company's farm Southwest of town 30,000 turkeys. In addition to these, large numbers of turkeys and all of the chickens processed in the O'Neill plant are bought from the poultry producers of this territory. The

The Food at the

TOM TOM

is Prepared to the Nth

Degree of Mouth-

Watering Goodness!

O'Neill

Treat Yourself with a Fine Dining

Treat Today at the ...

TOM TOM

Open 6 A. M. - Midnight

Corner Douglas & 5th

First, the sod building that poultry raisers of this territory took within its sheltering walls also supply this concern with

The Harding Creamery Co. organization this year completed a large building at the North Western railroad tracks and operates an extensive butter factory, maintaining three The onward sweep of the cream stations up town which year — since that day in 1874 buy annually about 100,000

The Corkle industries of O'-Neill probably produced more chicks and baby turks than any like institution in the state. The annual hatch of ba-by chicks is 300,000 and turpoults approximately 30,-James M. Corkle, the 000. James M. Corkle, the owner, brings 13,000 turkeys to maturity annually on his two ranches. The turkeys attain an average weight of 20 pounds each. Time also is found at this busy institution on the East edge of the city, housed in commodious buildings to ship out 200 cases of graded eggs per week.

R. G. Shelhamer, of the Shel-

R. G. Shelhamer, of the Shelhamer Produce, reports that his firm, which includes a chain of outlaying receiving stations, last year shipped the equivalent of 100 carloads of eggs, bought upwards of a half-mil-lion pounds of butterfat. and upwards of a million pounds of poultry. The Shelhamer firm is equipped to sharp-freeze eggs that are purchased on the grade and the freezer can handle several carloads of eggs at one time.

In addition, virtually all grocery and food stores in the city buy eggs from their rural patrons and most of these eggs are rushed to the terminal markets by truck.

J. B. Ryan annually ships 400 car loads of hay and hauls to nearby markets about the same tonnage by truck. Hundreds of truck loads of baled hay produced in the O'Neill territory are marketed by indil vidual ranchers.

The Frederickson Livestock Commission Co., a new enterprise in O'Neill, in 1948 sold 20,747 head of cattle, 577 hogs, 319 sheep

The O'Neill Grain Co. elevators last year shipped 112 without the author's name i cars of grain to the market Carl Sandburg, the Songbag: James W. Rooney, secretary of the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce, has a list of 194 names of business and professional firms carrying on business in the city.

The First to the Last

At the TOM TOM

GRAND

Bite of

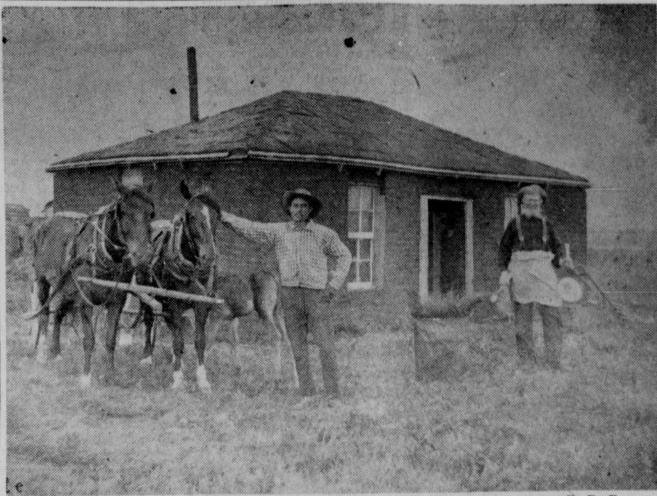

FOOD

You'll Enjoy . . .

EARLY OFFICIALS . . . These individuals (above) constituted the Holt county courthouse staff in 1886. In the photo (left-to-right) are; bottom row-Gene Cress, woman unidentified,

John A. Golden, M. D. Long, N. Martin, Edgar Adams, James Sullivan; top row-Sam Bohaw, John Harmon, John Kelly and Will Haley.

SOD HOUSE AND HAYBURNER ... The hay- | prairie. In photo (above) are R. D. Parsons burner and sod house were institutions of the and Allen T. White (with team).

When You and I Were Young . . .

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 8, 1899

A meeting was held last evening to consider a Fourth of July celebration, Messrs. Dickson, Harmon and DeYarman son, Harmon and DeYarman were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions, and are at work today. A committee on speaker, consisting of Messrs. Brennan, Harmon, Harrington, Weekes and Dickson, was also appointed. No definite action regarding the celebration will be taken until the soliciting be taken until the soliciting committee makes its report, which will be tomorrow or Sat-

The weather report shows that the rainfall in this section

during the month of May beats anything for a number of years during a corresponding month. The rainfall has been something like two inches, and the pro-spects are that it will be even greater in June. The heavy rain fall at this season is something unusual, as most of our rains usually come in April. The outlook is very encouraging for plenty of moisture this

25 YEARS AGO

June 5, 1924

while attending the funeral services of his sister, Mrs.

nis brother, Martin Waldron, of Chicago, whom he had not first went to England where he resided until the Spring of prother did not come to Am-widly separated parts of the country they did not visit each

H. C. McDonald again is champion of the North Nebraska golfers, winning the honor of undefeating J. A. Donohoe in the finals of the champions ship flight two up and one to go. Frank Biglin is the winner

Thomas Waldron, of this city,

urday evening.

islature.

July Celebration

The Little Old Sod Shanty

O'Neill Plans a The following is the poem written by the homesteader, Joseph Raymond, and published in the Inman Index. It now appears without the author's name in a volume of poems collected by

I am looking rather seedy now while holding down my claim, And my victuals are not always of the best; And the mice/play shyly round me as I nestle down to rest, In my little old sod shanty in the West.

Yet I rather like the novelty of living in this way, Though my bill of fare is always rather tame, But I'm happy as a clam on the land of Uncle Sam, In my little old sod shanty on my claim.

Refrain:

The hinges are of leather and the winows have no glass, While the board roof lets the howling blizzards in, And I hear the hungry kiyote as he slinks up through the grass, Round my little old sod shanty on my claim.

O, when I left my eastern home, a bachelor so gay, To try and win my way to wealth and fame,

I little thought that I'd come down to burning twisted hay In the little old sod shanty on my claim.

urday evening.

N. B. Bisbee died at his home three miles West of Chambers yesterday of consumption. Mr. Bisbee was one of Holt county's old settlers, having resided here about 19 y e a r s. He was one of the most successful stock raisers in the South Fork country, and some years ago was prominent in politics. In 1888 he represented the county in the lower branch of the legislature. My clothes are plastered o'er with dough, I'm looking like a fright And everything is scattered round the room,

But I wouldn't give the freedom that I have out in the West For the table of the Eastern man's old home.

Refrain:

Still I wish that some kind-hearted girl would pity on me take, And relieve me from the mess that I am in; The angel, how I'd bless her if this her home she'd make

And we would make our fortunes on the prairies of the West, Just as happy as two lovers we'd remain;

We'd forget the trials and troubles we endured at the first, In the little old sod shanty on our claim.

In the little old sod shanty on my claim.

And if kindly fate should bless us with now and then an heir, To cheer our hearts with honest pride of fame,

O, then we'd be contented for the toil that we had spent In the little old sod shanty on our claim.

When time enough had lapsed and all of those little brats

As we are about to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of the City of O'Neill, I am happy to know that it is my privilege to pay a tribute to those honest, sturdy men and unbroken land.

By their faith in God, love for their neighbors, their ambition seen since leaving home over and industry, they endured the greatest hardships and turned the new land into prosperous farms, and built the little city we all time was only 10 years old. He and also saw to it that their sons and daughters were better equip- America and to O'Neill. His ped to face the trials of life. From our community many have gone forth into the world to seek greater achievements and I erica for some years later and believe I voice the sentiment of this whole community when I as they have been located in say they are among the foremost and outstanding men and women

As mayor of this city. I make this tribute in behalf of the citizens of O'Neill.

H. E. COYNE.

Between 1601 and 1609, 2,000
Frenchmen of noble birth fell in duels, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

A new spectrometer tells simultaneously how much of the president's flight. J. D. Cronin is the winner of the secretary's flight. Between 1601 and 1609, 2,000 A new spectrometer tells Corn planting is well ad- atives are to the effect that vanced, acreage normal. We are she is getting along nicely,

Northwest of this city this sist in her care.

10 YEARS AGO

not informed of any replanting at this date, but later will determine the replanting, if any. Rains are needed and some home without her a search farmers are inclined to think found her lying at the side that some fields of corn will of the road about a block not germinate until it rains. from her home. She was un-The five days old son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McKee died at their home eight m i l e s Northwest of this city this city this city this city in honday morning to as-

Phillip Yarnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yarnell of June 8, 1939

Miss Mary Ann Meer, of Valentine, fell from a horse last Saturday afternoon and sustained a fractured skull. Latest reports received by O'Neill rel and Miss. Charles famel of this city, and a junior in the O'Neill high school, has been chosen as the representative of the American Legion post of this city to be their delegate to the annual Boys State, and will leave for there Friday.

JOIN US IN ENJOYING 8 DAYS OF

JUNE '49 THE FRONTIER, O'Neill, Nebr. PAGE 7-H

July 7, 8, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 Post Time 4 P. M. Daily Double Closes 3:45 P. M. ON U. S. HIGHWAY 81

For..

Prompt, Dependable

Delivery of

PRODUCTS IN TOWN OR IN THE COUNTRY!

CALL the BECKWITH OIL CO.

KEROSENE DISTILLATE

TRACTOR FUEL FUEL OIL

AUTO ACCESSORIES BATTERIES TUBES

CONGRATULATIONS TO O'NEILL On Her 75th Anniversary

Always Use MOBILGAS and MOBILOIL

Beckwith Oil Co.

- IN WEST O'NEILL -

Verne Beckwith

Phone 40

Residence 227-J

To noble men-and-womanhood had grown, It wouldn't seem half so lonely as around us we should look, And see the little old sod shanty on our claim. A Tribute From Mayor Coyne Season. Yesterday afternoon a scaffold broke at the postoffice building and gave several men a tumble that were working on it. Fortunately the scaffold was over Biglin's furniture store and the fall was not far.

women — our wonderful pioneers.

They left their established homes in other states, and came George Duman, in Sioux City, West to seek greater opportunities and happiness in a new and on Monday of last week, met

They inspired their children with courage and initiative 1877 when he came came to