New Officers Are Installed

Installation of new officers highlighted the regular meeting of Simonson post 93 of the American Legion auxiliary held on Wednesday evening, July 6, in the American Legion auditorium. Installed were: Mrs. Ira H. Moss, president; Mrs. Don Enright, first vice-president; Mrs. A. W. Carroll, second vice-president; Mrs. F. E. Parkins, chaplain; Mrs. Noal Long, historian; Mrs. Virgil Laursen, secretary; Mrs. James Carney, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Appleby, sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. Bennie Oetter, colorbearer.

Mrs. John Davidson, president of district II, acted as installing officer.

Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka, retiring president, presented each officer who served under her during her administration with a sterling silver powder scoop engraved with the auxiliary emblem as a token of her appreciation. She also presented a corsage of red roses to Mrs. Davidson.

Mrs. John Grutsch, retiring secretary, and Mrs. Dean Streeter, retiring treasurer, presented a corsage of white roses to Mrs. Ruzicka.

Just prior to the installation, Mrs. Davidson presented an emblem initiation lamp to the unit, in appreciation of the cooperation of the unit in all district and department activities during the year.

Miss Beverly Boelter, who represented Simonson unit at 1949 Cornhusker Girls' state, delivered a report on her activities.

The matter of a contribution to the P-TA playground fund was brought before the meeting for discussion. When it was learned from P-TA mothers who were present that the goal of $1,000 needed only $84 to complete it, it was unanimously agreed that this amount should be contributed to the playground equipment fund for Ford's park.

At the close, refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mrs. Axel Borg, Mrs. Harry Lansworth, Mrs. James McNulty, Mrs. Clarence Hicks, Miss Twila Hicks and Mrs. James Carney.

Fontaine-Rothchild Nuptials Exchanged

CHAMBERS—Gerald Rothchild, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rothchild, of Atkinson, and Miss Mabel Fontaine, daughter of Charles Fontaine, of Newport, were united in marriage Thursday, June 30 at 7:15 p. m. at the Presbyterian parsonage in O'Neill. Rev. Ralph Gerber officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Art Dexter of O'Neill. The bride chose for her wedding a light blue nylon street length dress with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of red roses. She followed the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue.

Mrs. Dexter wore a light pink dress trimmed with white lace. She also wore white accessories and had a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom wore a dark blue suit and his attendant a dark brown suit. Both had white carnation boutonnières. The bridegroom graduated from the Chambers high school with the class of 1946 and until recently had been employed in Chambers. The bride has made her home and attended school at Chambers the past two years.

After a short wedding trip to the Black Hills, they will be at home in Atkinson where the bridegroom is employed by the Atkinson Livestock Market.

WEDS HERE . . . Before her marriage on Thursday, June 30, Mrs. Gilbert Fox (above) was Miss Doris Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tomlinson, of Star. The couple exchanged marriage vows at the Methodist church in O'Neill with Rev. V. R. Bell officiating at the double-ring ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, of Emmet. —O'Neill Photo Co.

MAY BRIDE . . . Pictured above is Mrs. Fritz Schwager, of Chambers. Mrs. Schwager is the former Miss Helen Durre, of Ewing. She became the bride of Mr. Schwager on Sunday, May 22, at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Chambers with Rev. L. A. Dale officiating. Mrs. Schwager is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Durre, of Ewing. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Schwager, of Ewing. —O'Neill Photo Co.
