Dexter-Groeger Nuptials Said

ATKINSON—Miss Geraldine Dexter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dexter, of Atkinson, and Robert Louis Groeger, son of Mrs. Julia Groeger, also of Atkinson, were united in marriage Monday, August 1, at 7 a. m. in St Joseph's Catholic church at Atkinson. Rev. A. A. Lehmen performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a tailored white sharkskin suit with a corsage of pink and white roses. Her blouse was rose colored and her hat, gloves and other accessories were white. The rosary she carried had been a prized possession of her grandmother, the late Mrs. Emma Ries.

Delores Groeger, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. Miss Groeger's tailored suit was of beige sharkskin and her corsage was white roses.

The bridegroom and his attendant, William Dexter, brother of the bride, wore gray Summer suits and the usual white carnation boutonnières.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party, their immediate relatives and Father Lehmen at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bogue.

Betty Harkness and Marilyn Ries, cousins of the bride, and Patricia Scott, a friend, had charge of the tables.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. P. Blom, of Hampton, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Towers, of Morrilton, N. J.; and Mrs. Edith Harkness and daughter Betty, of Los Angeles, Cal.

After a short wedding trip, Bob and Jerry as they are known to most residents of Atkinson will make their home in Stuart.

Mrs. Groeger was guest-of-honor at a pre-nuptial shower given by her aunt, Mrs. Ed Ries, on Wednesday, July 27. Friends showered the bride to be with many gifts.
