McDonald-Froelich Nuptials in Omaha

White gladiolus and asters with candelabra formed the setting at St. John's Catholic church in Omaha for the marriage of Miss Margaret Jean Froelich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Froelich, and John ("Jack") Edward McDonald, son of Mrs. Thomas E. McDonald and the late Mr. McDonald, of Atkinson.

The double-ring ceremony took place at 9 a.m. Saturday, August 13. Rev. Aloysius Wilwending officiated at the mass. James Gorman, of Omaha, accompanied the Misses Nancy Froelich, cousin of the bride, and Barbara Birmingham, soloists, on the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a marquisette gown over taffeta with a round net yolk. A bertha with lace medallion added to the fitted bodice, which buttoned down the back. Lace medallions were repeated in her full gathered skirt which tapered to a three-yard train. Her full illusion length veil was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, centered by a removable lavender orchid. She wore a single strand of pearls, which was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Jane Froelich, a twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She appeared in an aqua gown fashioned from the bride's dress. Her headdress matched her gown. She also wore net mitts. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. McDonald wore a navy blue business suit and a white rose boutonniere.

William J. Montgomery, of Norfolk, served as best man. He wore a beige gabardine suit. His boutonniere was also a white rose.

The train bearer wore a red cossack and a white surplice.

The ushers were: John Keating and James Berigan, of Atkinson; Paul Kubitschek and Edward Campbell.

Mrs. Froelich wore a brown sheer dress with a beige feathered hat. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mrs. McDonald wore a medium blue silk suit with navy blue accessories. She, also, had a corsage of white roses.

A wedding breakfast was held at Hilltop for the immediate family and relatives.

After a trip to Bon Harbor, Minn., the young couple will make their home at 2604 North 58th street, Omaha.

Mrs. McDonald is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and attended Dickerson business college in Omaha.

Mr. McDonald is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school in Atkinson. Upon return from their trip, Mr. McDonald will resume his studies at Creighton university.

Among the O'Neillites attending the McDonald-Froelich nuptials in Omaha Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campbell and son, Edward, Miss Barbara Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Froelich and daughter, Miss Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miles and Mrs. Al Fritton. Mrs. McDonald's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wanser and family, formerly of Wayne, also attended. They are now living at Holly Springs, Ia., where Mr. Wanser will coach.

Thomas McDonald, of Atkinson, a brother of the bridegroom, also attended.

Improvement Club Meets—
The Sandcreek Improvement club met at the home of Mrs. Deyll Marcellus on Thursday, August 11. Most all of the members were present. The club displayed a float "Haydays" at Atkinson. The theme was "The Home."

John Daly returned Tuesday from Omaha where he had been on business for five days.

Mary E. Lennemann Weds O'Neill Man

Yellow gladiolus and daisies decorated the altar for the 9 a. m. wedding ceremony Saturday, August 13, of Miss Mary Ellen Lennemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lennemann, of Omaha, and John Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shoemaker, of O'Neill. The nuptial mass was read at the Lady Chapel of St. Cecilia's cathedral with Rev. Clement A. Bracht officiating and George and Pat Davis, cousins of the bridegroom serving.

Miss Jo Ann Frenking sang the wedding music with Mrs. Winifred Traynor Flanagan accompanying on the organ.

The bride appeared in a long white gown of marquisette over taffeta fashioned a scalloped yoke of imported lace and a lace edged peplum.

The full skirt was gathered into a bustle and fell into a chapel length train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion net fell from a lace bonnet. Her bouquet was of white daisies centered with a white orchid.

Miss Phillis Lennemann, maid-of-honor, and Miss Evelyn Werner, bridesmaid, wore orchid and pale green respectively. Their gowns were of frosted marquisette over taffeta with matching braided headpieces. Their bouquets were of yellow daisies.

The bridegroom was attired in a blue gabardine business suit. His attendants were Robert Shoemaker, a brother, and Dale French, of O'Neill, a friend.

Kenneth L. Pape, of Kearney, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Donald F. Evans were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a gray afternoon gown trimmed in lace with white accessories. She wore a pink amercia corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a pale flame blue gown with conforming accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Mary's academy with the class of 1941. He is also a graduate of Creighton university law college, receiving his degree in 1947. He is now employed with Central National Insurance company of Omaha.

Following the ceremony breakfast was served to the bridal party at the Blackstone hotel.

The garden room of the Blackstone hotel was decorated with white gladiolus and yellow daisies for the afternoon reception. There were 200 attending.

Out-of-town guests include: Mr. and Mrs. Hank Miller, of Sioux City; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brennan, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. George Dwyer, of Waterloo; Mr. and Mrs. John Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bosh, Casper Pribil, Mr. and Mrs. Dale French, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miles, and Mr. and Mrs. John Shoemaker, all of O'Neill.

The young couple will live at 907½ North 49th avenue on their return from their wedding trip.
